The Magic Number is a 1989 single by De La Soul, originally recorded in 1988 and first released on the 1989 album 3 Feet High and Rising, with a chorus based on a snippet from the children's show Schoolhouse Rock!, written by Bob Dorow. The song says that number three is a magic number. The song pretty much sampled songs and vocal samples originally sampled in Lesson 3 double Dee and Steinski, as well as sampling Lesson 3 itself. The song also samples The Crunge Under the direction of Led Zeppelin, Three is a Magic Number from Schoolhouse Rock, Five Feet High and Rising (song) by Johnny Cash, Different Beats by Sil Johnson and Is This the Future?
