

Street Quest checklist for authors

Check your quest before sending to moderators

Quest creation

- Please read instructions
- View Quest Creation Guidelines
- Learn 5 steps to create a cool quest
- Download the app on iOS or Android
- Complete at least one quest
- Start writing in Google Docs and make sure moderators can comment/leave comments
- Check grammar through the app LanguageTool
- Create a quest in private mode in the application, or, even better, in the web version
- Go through the quest after publishing privately

Content Check

- There are at least 10 questions and 10 narratives
- Questions are related to the text
- The answers are thought out (synonyms, abbreviations)
- No copyright infringement in the text or in the visual materials
- Riddles are available for solving on the basis of general knowledge, as well as the information received by players during the quest

Quest Creativity

Creative quests are rated higher by moderators

- The quest contains interesting riddles: rebuses, cyphers and multi-way puzzles
- The quest has a plot, a story
- The quest contains real or fictional characters

Route

- A clear explanation of the movement from one point to another
- Points are located no more than 10 minutes walk from each other
- Points are arranged sequentially and logically.
- Check the quest after publication, walk through the points

Mistakes

A quest cannot be published as long as there is at least one of the errors listed below

- The synonyms in the answers are not thought out
- No hints
- The questions are not related to the text
- No pictures
- The route is not thought out
- Copyright infringed