Juz 30 quran surahs

Read your daily dose of the Koran – Juz 30 Listen to Juz 30 – Saad al-Ghamidi (Arabic/English) [player id=948]
Sections: Surah an-Naba: Surah gives important news or message. It tells us that a closing date is coming. This beautiful and orderly universe points to the day of decision. Allah condemns all people. The bad ones are thrown to hell and the righteous get their rewards from Allah. Surah an-Naz'at: It talks about the angels of Ingah who take souls at the time of death. Because Allah has the power to take souls, as He has created the entire universe. He also has the power to resurrect people after their death. The story of the Prophet Moses and pharaoh is cited to warn the people of the consequences of arrogant pride that lead to the denial of truth. Surah 'Abasa: Surah begins with the case of a blind man (Abdullah ibn um Maktum) who came to the prophet seeking information when Makah's chiefs denied the message. It talks about the magnitude of Always's message. Those who accept this message will benefit from it. But those who deny this message are self-harming. Surah al-Infitar: Surah reminds man that Allah has given them a wonderfully proportionate form, but they and the entire universe are totally dependent on Allah. Organic has a purpose and judgment day comes. Surah al-Mutaffitin: Surah warns those who commit fraud in business. It reminds me of honest deals. The righteous thrive. Allah has a record of every human being. Surah al-InsHQiqa: This Surah tells us that there is no eternity in this world. It also talks about recording deeds, rewarding the righteous and punishing the bad guys. It reminds people to pay attention to the Koran. Surah al-Buruj: Surah talks about the persecution of believer. Allah watches over his own people and He judges his enemies. Surah warns the opponents of this message. Their end may be the same as that of many nations that denied the message of Allah and persecuted believers. Surah al-Tariq: Every thing in this universe works under the protection and supervision of the great Keeper. Creating people and creating this universe is no joke. The creation is a serious work of Ingah and his word for the Koran. Surah al-A'la: Surah talks about the praise of Ingah. He created everything. He created a human being and gave him the ability to make progress. A person can make progress if he follows the rules of Ingah. The Koran is It's message, and he's guarding it. The prophet should continue to give a message to others. Those who accept it will benefit from it, but those who reject it will be the losers. It. About Akhrah and the fact that this message is the same one given to prophets Ibrahim and Moses. Surah al-Ghashiyah: Surah talks about the impending catastrophe that covers everything. Mankind is divided into two groups: a fearful, tired and exhausted group, and a cheerful and happy group. Then attention is drawn to this marvelous things created by Ingah. The prophet is told to remind people. His job is just to remind you, not to impose a message. Allah will make the final decision. Surah al-Fajr: Surah talks about the verdict of Allah: the reward and the punishment that happens after that. Surah al-Shams: Surah tells us that because there is a contrast between sun and moon, night and day, sky and earth, there is also a big difference between good and evil. Surah al-Layl: It basically has the same theme as the previous Surah, but it is about two lifestyles: good and bad habits and the consequences of both ways. Surah ad-Dhuha: This Surah sends a message of hope and comfort. It is a reminder of always's blessings and how believes should take these blessings. Surah al-Insahar: Surah tells us that believer people must not give up under hardship and stress. After trouble, it's easy. Surah at-Tin: The conclusion is that Always's verdict will come. Surah al-A'laq: The first five verses are the first to be revealed to the prophet (saw) in hira's cave. Then the rest of Surah was revealed when the message was presented to the people of Makkah and they began to threaten the prophet. Surah about people's humble beginnings, but the high position they can get if they follow Ingah's message. Surah al-Qadr: Surah talks about Her Majesty of the Koran and the glory and the time when the Koran was unveiled. Surah al-Bayyinah: Surah tells us that the Prophet Muhammad had a clear message and a divine book. This book (the Koran) contains the basic message of all the prophets of Allah. It also draws attention to the different ends of those who follow the right path and those who turn away from the truth. Surah al-Zilzal: This Surah talks about the ancems of death and that all acts are revealed on judgment day. Surah al-Adiyat: Surah tells us about human ungginess and where it leads her. It depicts an Arab wild and undisciplined lifestyle before Islam. It also reminds us that Allah is aware of all the secrets of the human soul and He reveals them on judgment day. Surah al-Qari'ah: Surah issues a warning about judgment day. It's going to be a day of great claming. People scatter and mountains crumble. Only those with weighty balances thrive. Surah al-Takathur: Surah speaks the consequences of materialism and this worldlyness. Surah al-Asr: Surah tells us that people tend to be losers. Then it tells you the path to success and salvation. Surah al-Humazah: Surah talks about some of the moral problems that affect the rich, and then it gives them warnings about the consequences of these evils. Surah al-Fil: Surah recalls an incident in which Ka'allah was attacked by an army from the south of Arabia, but this army was destroyed by Allah. It is the same God who protected Ka'bah, His message is now presented by the Prophet Muhammad (saw). Surah Quraish: It reminded the people of Makkah that this was Allah who gave them honor and authority among other tribes because of His house, ka'bah, so why not worship Him and obey His commandment. It is also a reminder to others to worship Allah, who offers everything. Surah al-Ma'un: Religion means social service, the poor and those in need. Surah tells us that true faith in God and the last day create a friendly and compassionate character. Surah al-Kawthar: Surah gives good news and comfort that Ingah's message wins and the enemies of truth are the losers. Surah al-Kafirun: Surah tells us that there can be no compromise on matters of faith and worship. People are free to follow what religion they want, but truth and lie cannot be confused. Surah an-Nasr: This is Madani Surah and according to most authorities this is the last Surah unveiled to the prophet (saw). Surah reminds us of the beliefvement in the success situation. You should be grateful to Allah and ask for forgiveness for any shortcomings or mistakes. Surah al-Lahabin. This Surahi was revealed to condemn the behavior of one of the prophet's relatives who objected to his message. Surah warns that those who oppose Thah's message will be severely punished, regardless of whether they are the prophet's family or not. Surah al-Ikhlās: This is a great Surah from Tawhid. It's about the loneliness of Ingah. Surah al-Falaq: Surah reminds us that evil slithers everywhere and all things can become harmful. You always have to be conscious, do the right things and apply for thah protection. Surah an-Nas: Surah tells us that Satan is always against people and he puts the wrong suggestions in their minds. We should ask For Alta's protection from Satan and his whispers. This is a fitting end to Ingah's book. God's book is supposed to offer protection from all evil and success under the guidance of Ingah. For an updated and latest version of this article, visit... [2] [3] It is also known as (جُزْءٌ/جزء) in Iran and on the mainland. The breakdown into ajzān is irrelevant to the importance of Korur'ān, and anyone can start reading anywhere in Qur'ān. [4] In the Middle Ages, when it was too expensive for most Muslims to buy a manuscript, copies of the Koran were stored in mosques and accessible to people. These copies were often 30 parts (juz'). [5] Some use these verses to make it easier for Korur'ān to pronounce per month – as during Ramadan.[2][3] when the entire Koran is pronounced in Tarawii prayers, typically at the rate of one juz a night. Juz' is still divided into hizbāni (illuminated by two groups, hizb, plural: ahzāb), so there are 60 ahzāb. Each hizb (group) is divided into four quarters, making eight-quarters per juz' called maqra' (illuminated, reading). There are 240 of these districts (maqra's) in Korur'ān. These maqra are often used as a practical part to remember the Koran. [6] The most commonly taught juz' is juz' 'amma, 30. Juz' 'amma is named, like most ajzā', after the first word in its first verse (in this case, chapter 78). [7] The distribution of Sūrah in the ajzā' direction, and the length of the bar corresponds to sūrah, which is proportionate to the number of letters sūrah letters in juz divided by the total juz' letter.
