TRANCE Formation America's documented autobiography of victim of state mind control Kathy O'Brien is the only vocal and recovered survivor of the Central Intelligence Agency's MK-Ultra Project Monarch Management Activities. Chiseled deep into the white stone of Langley CIA, Virginia headquarters is a partial verse removed from the Bible and the writing of St. John ... the truth will make you free. This statement, like the agency, is a complete reality. The building that he engraved on the homes of the most successful producer of lies in the world to facilitate psychological warfare. The company uses truth and technology as a raw material to produce pure lies to control you and America's allies. On the pages of TRANCE Formation of America you will find the truth - usa. GOVERNMENT MIND CONTROL -- On August 3, 1977, the 95th U.S. Congress opened a hearing on reported violations related to the CIA's TOP SECRET intelligence management code called MK Ultra. On February 8, 1988, the victim of MK Ultra, Kathy O'Brien, was secretly rescued from her enslavement by intelligence insider Mark Phillips. Their seven-year prosecution of justice has been halted FOR REASONS OF NATIONAL SECURITY. TRANCE Formation of America exposes the truth behind this criminal abuse of the unconstitutional 1947 National Security Act. Mark Phillips is a Melbourne writer and unionist. He has worked for more than 20 years in print journalism and related industries and is currently the editor of Working Life. He is the author of Radio City: The First 30 Years of 3RRR-FM (The Vulgar Press, 2006). He made the Overland NUW FAir Australia Award shortlist with its title occupation. Katie O'BrienBornCathleen Ann O'Brien (1957-12-04) December 4, 1957 (age 62)Muskegon, Michigan, USA OccupationWriter, speakerSituation of theories, Statements, which are claimed to victimize the Project MonarchChildren1Website Kathy O'Brien or Kathleen Ann O'Brien (born December 4, 1957, Muskegon, Michigan) is an American conspiracy theorist and author who claims to be a victim of a government mind control program called the Monarch Project, which she claims was part of a project by the CIA. O'Brien made these allegations in Trance Formation of America (1995) and Access Denied: For Reasons of National Security (2004), which she co-wrote with her husband, Mark Phillips. According to scientists, there is no reliable evidence of O'Brien's claims and there are numerous inconsistencies with her history. Conspiracy theories in Trance Formation of America, O'Brien claims that as a child she was first sexually abused by her father as well as a network of child pornographers. Presumably, she was forced by the CIA to take part in the project which it claims is a subdivision of the MKUltra project and the project project According to O'Brien, under hypnosis, she was able to recall memories of sexual violence - both about herself and her daughter - by international paedophiles, drug lords and Satanists who allegedly used a form of traumatic mind control programming to make her a sex slave. O'Brien accuses a wide range of prominent individuals, from American, Canadian, Mexican and Saudi government officials to country and western music stars, to participating in the Monarch Project conspiracy to manage sex slave rings and child abuse. For example, O'Brien claims that George H.W. Bush and Miguel de la Madrid used holograms to appear before her in modified forms, saying that Bush apparently activated the lizard hologram as an alien that provided the illusion of turning Bush into a chameleon before my eyes. Looking back, I realize that Bush has been painstakingly careful in positioning our locations in order for the effectiveness of the hologram to be as effective as possible. 1:167, 211 O'Brien claims that Project Monarch caused her to develop several personality disorders, but during alternate personality episodes, she had a photographic recall. O'Brien's Formation of The Trans America was ordered as one of the most significant and extreme conspiracy theories of mind control, and her assertion of links between Satanic ritual abuses and MKUltra influenced popular conspiracy culture. Religious and political figures criticized O'Brien's claims for lacking any corroborating evidence. David G. Robertson described them as a symptom of boneless moral panic and noted that no one had ever been held accountable for such crimes and no corroborating evidence had been provided. According to scientist Michael Barkun, scientific and journalistic treatments mkUltra do not mention the monarch of the project. Barkun describes O'Brien's story as sensational even by the standards of conspiracy theories and notes that even the conspiracy theorist with black helicopters, Jim Keith, considered it fraudulent or delusional. Jodie Dean cited O'Brien's statements as an example of conspiracy theorists' penchant for over-jumping and a willingness to disassociate themselves from common sense. O'Brien publishes his own books. Page 2 correctly predicted the rise of heroin while Bush was in office, he said. And people still don't think to ask why his name is the brotherhood of the skull and bones of Yale is. Since Clinton is more involved in cocaine surgery than he is of Bush's heroin ops7, the price of coke and crack is likely to fall in this country while Hovers. Mark agreed. The Presidency has changed the party all right, from the heroin game to the coke game with all the same players involved in it. With the exception of the children Bush used and abused, I said. From my point of view, that's a big difference between the Bushes and the Clintons. In addition, they play the same computer game DARPA-Sandia Labs. - Katie O'Brien, ACCESS DENIED for national security reasons: A documented journey from the CIA Mind Control Slave to U.S. Government Whistleblower Pharmaceutical Companies that fund medical schools does not want this fact to be realized, and therefore the information is suppressed. Many pharmaceutical companies and doctors make money by treating symptoms rather than causal care. When cause-and-effect is more understandable, treatment is often given. Drugs don't make money. Why was Aspartame released into the public despite the evidence of the damage he was causing while Donald Rumsfeld was CEO of Searle? Why do you think George W. Bush was on Eli Lilly's board of directors? To counter the mass genocide it perpetuates? Why do you think politicians are so healthy and live so long? What do they know they don't tell us? I'm not saying that all this is a conspiracy to dilute the population, but relevant health information should be publicly available information and not intentionally suppressed. If this information were taught in schools, unethical pharmaceutical companies would lose their control over the world. - Kathy O'Brien, ACCESS DENIED for National Security Reasons: A Documentary Journey From CIA Mind Control Slave to U.S. Government Whistleblower Whistleblower cathy o'brien book. cathy o'brien book pdf. cathy o'brien book pdf tranceformation of america
