

ST. JAMES' PARISH, GLENMORE

10th October 2021.

Twenty Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Being wealthy or being concerned about wealth, adds difficulty to the task of working out our salvation. Jesus promises a hundredfold reward even in this life to all who leave everything and follow him. All Christians are called to practice detachment.

Web page donate button.

We are delighted to announce that we now have an online facility for you to conveniently pay your church contributions from the comfort of your own home. This service can be used instead of returning your physical envelope to the church if you prefer. You can log onto www.glenmoreparish.ie and hit the donate button, it allows you to make a once off payment or to set up a recurring monthly amount. The process is simple and straightforward and makes it even easier for you to support your parish financially. This online process can also be used to contribute to the parish clergy account. We would encourage as many as possible to use this new service. Once again, we thank you for your continued support.

Remembering those who have died.

Anniversaries-

John & Alice Ryan, The Village and Deceased Members of the Ryan and Cody Family.
Stasia Cody, Carrigcloney.
Tom Hartley, Ballinclar.

Many thanks for your continued generosity and support of the parish at this time.

3. Sunday 7th November

The 11am mass in Glenmore Church on Sunday 7th November will be offered for the deceased relatives and friends of Glenmore Parishioners. It will be one of the nine masses priests say in the month of November for deceased parishioners. Masses on November 2nd the Feast of the Holy Souls will be also celebrated for that intention and notice will be given of the other seven masses.

After mass is celebrated in the church on November 7th the Rosary will be recited outside in the cemetery (weather permitting) followed by a blessing of the graves. Donations collected on that the day will go towards the upkeep of the cemetery.

We welcome into the Christian community Anna May Jones, daughter of Barry & Carmel Ballyfacey who was baptised recently in our church.

13. Our thought for the week.

Beatitudes for Carers
Blessed are those who care; they will let people know they are loved.

Blessed are those who are gentle; as the sun helps the buds to unfold.

Blessed are those who listen; they will lighten many a burden.

Blessed are those who know how to let go; they will have the joy of seeing people find themselves.

Blessed are those who, when nothing can be done or said, do not walk away, but remain to provide a comforting and supportive presence.

Blessed are those, when nothing can.

Blessed are those who recognise their own need to receive; they will be able to give all the better.

Blessed are those who give without hope of return; they will give others an experience of God
