- Jeremiah 11:4-5
- Proverbs 16:20 (NLT)
- Revelation 1:3

Jeremiah 7:23-27

- Doing what you want over what God wants is a step _____. What God wants is revealed, in part, through his prophets.
- Don't expect people to listen or respond, when they _____ to be taught.

Why don't people obey their spiritual leaders?

Luke 6:57-62

1. They don't allow themselves to be _____. They are in _____ remote control because of a world and a church which have broken their hearts. They are _____ their lives without being conscious of it, to avoid the risk of loss.
2. They have other _____.
3. They go in and out of _____. (They fail to see the leader through the eyes of the Spirit.)

Hebrews 13:17

- Obey: assent, yield, trust, be persuaded. It comes from the Greek word peitho which means persuade, allow oneself to be persuaded. This is a voluntary, deliberate act of the will.
- Obedience is a _____ - learned through suffering. (Hebrews 5:8). Where suffering is not simply going through hardships, but experiences, things that affect you, being vexed, or things you feel.
- “Even though He was a Son, He learned obedience...” The context of obedience is _____. The relational dynamic based in the spirit of _____ is what enables obedience. “My son listen to me” is repeated over and over in Proverbs.
- As long as you cling on to _____, you disqualify yourself from the opportunity for promotion into your destiny (Hebrews 5:8-10, Philippians 2:1-11). _____ is not in question, it is your _____.
yourself as an obedient son.

Obedience is an act of the will. _____ is an issue that happens in the will. (Jeremiah 11:8-14, NLT) Because of Israel’s _____, God told Jeremiah not to pray for the people anymore.

Obedience is _____ for how we we will live forever. In the Kingdom, all will serve and obey the Most High. (Daniel 7:27) Learn how now. Just like the law was “our schoolmaster” bringing us to Christ, following Christ is a 'schoolmaster', preparing us for living with the Father, who is perfect in all of His ways. What we are perfected in now, is what we will operate in later.
