

THE ASSEMBLY OF THE NEW EARTH

THE TEN KEYS OF THE SHAMBHALLA CODEX:
FROM COLLAPSE TO SACRED RETURN

FATIMA BACOT

SPIRITUAL TEACHER, ACTIVIST, GUIDE

The Assembly of the New Earth

In times of collapse, we don't wait for a better world to arrive. We become it ...together, fiercely, imperfectly, now.

The Assembly and its Ten Codices are a living response to genocide, ecocide, collapse and moral decay.

It is where the awake gather to witness, act, build and reweave the sacred.

THE FOUR PILLARS OF THE ASSEMBLY

The Assembly stands upon four non-negotiable pillars. They are the bedrock of our gathering, the lens through we see the world, and the foundation from which we act.

1. Radical Non-Separation (The Unified Field): There is no "out there." We are interconnected in a vast Web of Life. An injustice against one people, species or ecosystem is an injustice against the whole. Spirituality that bypasses this suffering is not spirituality but a betrayal of our fundamental interconnectedness. We are One Global Body.
2. The Sacred & Immanent Web of Life: The Earth—La Tierra—is a living, conscious and remembering being. She is not a resource to be extracted from or a backdrop to human drama. The Divine is not transcendent away from this world but is immanent within it. We refuse escapist fantasies and commit to the sacred here and now.

3. Naming the Pathology of Empire: The global system of supremacy, extraction and dehumanisation that operates on silence, complicity and manufactured consent— is not "broken." It is functioning exactly as designed. We must name this system and its "Dark Fathers" (who can be both men and women) clearly to break its spell and refuse its demands.
4. Sacred Warriorship as the Response: Our answer is not passive hope but fierce, sacred, disciplined action. This is the fusion of the mystic and the activist. Love is not a sentiment; it is a sword. Compassion is not soft; it demands justice. We are called to become protectors, disruptors, and builders.

This introductory document, and the Codices within it, are a map for living and fighting from this unwavering ground.

It's for generational wisdom, healing and legacy builders.

It's for humanity's collective roots, for a thriving global family, for tribal unity.

It's for abundance in all forms for us all, with wholeness anchored, aligned in Soul.

It's for bridge-builders, foundation, reciprocity and multi-generational community.

You are not alone in your heartbreak.

You are not wrong for your rage.

You are being called to remember, rise and rehumanise.

We are One. All is One. Love is the Key. Love Conquers All.

THE ASSEMBLY OF THE NEW EARTH

My Invitation to You

We stand in a time of converging apocalypses: spiritual, ecological, ancestral, political.

Unbeknownst to me, from October 2023 a cohesive body of work was about to reveal itself through my writing, teaching, witnessing, grieving, raging, warning and posting over Gaza: the Ten Codices of the Shambhalla Codex.

The Ten Codices form a map of the Soul's journey from collapse into resurrection and return.

These 10 are the pillars of The Assembly of the New Earth.

The Assembly is a gathering of awakened Souls who refuse to look away, who walk the spiral homeward through fire, shadow, memory, justice and Sacred Warriorship.

Each Codex carries a distinct frequency and hue of Soul-initiation. From the scorched reds and ember golds of moral ignition, through the forest greens of descent and remembrance, to the midnight blues and luminous golds of visionary return, the journey spirals through the elements, inviting a sacred alchemy.

Fire reveals, burns and clarifies. Earth roots and restores. Water grieves and remembers. Ether re-enchants.

The Codices take us from rupture to resilience, from truth-telling to visionary reconstruction. Each is a threshold, summoning and portal home.

In the Assembly, you are invited to take your place among us as Witness, Disruptor, Keeper, Strategist, Builder or a fusion of them all. This is neither a space for passive consumption nor blind reassurance.

You are not alone and you never were. This is not the end, but the Turning, if you want it.

About Fatima Bacot

Fatima Bacot is a spiritual-political writer and teacher working at the intersection of conscience, collapse and collective responsibility.

Her work focuses on moments of threshold when inherited frameworks no longer hold, and clarity matters more than reassurance. She does not offer self-help or transcendence narratives, but orientation: helping people locate themselves within the historical, moral and spiritual terrain of our time.

Fatima's work weaves mysticism, political analysis, ancestral memory and embodied practice. She is known for naming what many sense but struggle to articulate: the spiritual cost of empire, the collapse of dominant paradigms and the necessity of dignified rage, devotion and repair in an era of profound unraveling.

Her teaching is shaped by intergenerational experience of European fascism, long engagement with spiritual traditions and decades of inquiry into power, consciousness and resistance. She works from position rather than persuasion, as a cartographer of thresholds and a steward of collective reckoning.

Fatima is the founder of The Assembly of the New Earth, a living body of work grounded in the Ten Codices – a framework for rehumanisation, moral courage, and participation in the repair of life on Earth.

Fatima lives and works internationally, offering essays, transmissions, live gatherings, trainings, seminars and long-form initiatory journeys for those called to meet this threshold with clarity, steadiness and resolve.

About the Assembly of the New Earth

The Assembly of the New Earth is not a utopian dream, nor an escape from this world...

The Assembly is a place for those who already know, who are awake, who are ready for fire, not just light ... and are looking for a place to put their truths down.

The Assembly is a convergence of memory, grief, intelligence and catalytic action, summoning those who are willing to stand at the edge of collapse and become agents of sacred regeneration.

The Assembly gather at a time of converging apocalypses: spiritual, ecological, ancestral and political. They don't need convincing the world is in collapse. They seek full integrity.

At the heart of the Assembly lives The Ten Codices of the Shambhalla Codex and the Assembly navigates them along the Path of Dignified Return. The Codices are thresholds of descent, devotion, disruption and remembrance.

In this Assembly, Shambhalla is neither elsewhere nor a myth to escape into. Rather, Shambhalla is a memory to awaken through fire, shadow, ancestral memory, moral clarity and Sacred Warriorship.

It is the Soul of the World before the wound, and the Code of the Earth we are called to return to. Shambhalla is the Grail we do not find, but become.

In Grail legend, the land is dying and has become a Wasteland because the king is wounded, and no one asks the right question. In the Wasteland, the rivers dry, the fields rot and the people despair because something sacred has been lost. The same as we see around us now.

THE ASSEMBLY OF THE NEW EARTH

The Spiral of Dignified Return is the Quest for the Holy Grail, reimagined.

It is the journey to restore what was desecrated and to become worthy of what was once sacred. Through this spiral journey, and Codex by Codex, the Wasteland is healed and Shambhalla reappears. The New Earth becomes.

The Ten Codices chart a path through the ruins, back to the body, the Earth, the Living Library and the Soul of the World.

The Assembly of the New Earth speaks not to the 'New Earth' of New Age illusion and the spiritual industrial complex, where the wounded world is discarded in favour of spiritual fantasy.

In the Assembly, it is the New Earth as reckoning. Here, grief is sacred, rage is holy, action is spiritual and the Earth is a living, breathing being whose memory pulses through our blood and bones.

What you hold in your hands is only a beginning.

This document is the Introduction to the Assembly, the first threshold of a journey that deepens through the Five Tiers and the Ten Codices.

In our Codex Trainings, we open into some of the world's great esoteric and revolutionary lineages:

a convergence where the Tarot's archetypal language, the Qabbalah's Tree of Life, the Grail's mythic quest and the spiral pathways of evolution meet the urgent demands of our fractured age.

Enjoy this Introduction.

May the work become alive in you.

May what has been silenced speak.

May what has been desecrated regenerate.

May what has been lost... return.

CODEX 1

THE NAMING OF THE WOUNDED WORLD

There comes a moment when we can no longer pretend. When the lies we have swallowed about progress, civilisation and who we are begin to choke us.

The world is not “broken”: it has been systematically and purposely violated. To begin the journey home, we must name the wound, speak the truth and refuse the false comfort of looking away. Naming is not an intellectual exercise. It is an act of love and a declaration that we will no longer collude with stories that keep us passive and abusive perpetrators. When we see clearly, we are no longer controlled, moral clarity becomes our compass.

Your Practice

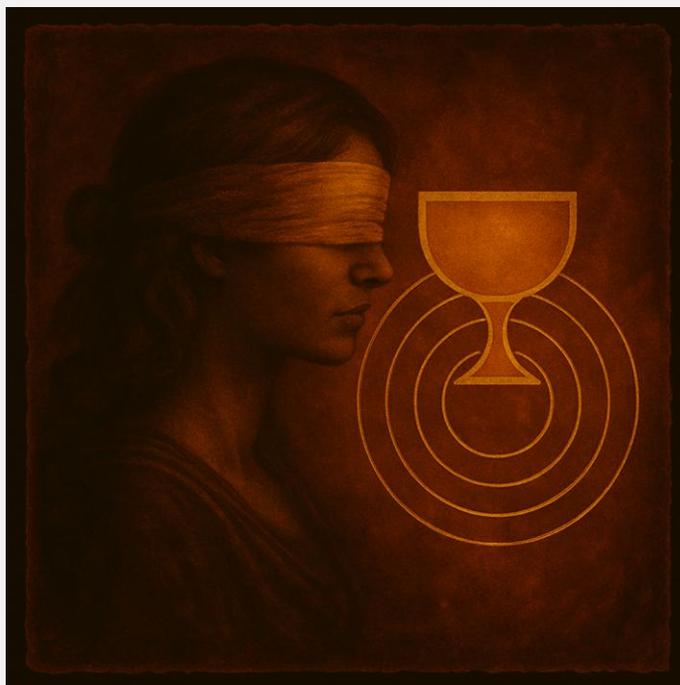

Find one wound in the world that you have tried not to see. Speak it aloud ... to yourself, to another, to the wind. Let it be plain. Let it be without euphemism or spin. Speak the truth about the wounding and the wounded.

Your Next Step: If the naming has stirred something in you, let's map your Codex path together.

CODEX 2

THE UNBINDING OF ILLUSIONS

There are spells we have been under for so long we have mistaken them for truth and wisdom. We have called them spiritual, moral, inevitable. We have wrapped ourselves in them like warm blankets while the world burned.

To unbind illusions is to let the glamour fall away: the false purity, the hierarchies, the soft lies that keep us in denial and complicit. It is to face the seductions of escape and exceptionalism, even when they have comforted and benefitted us for years.

When we unbind, we feel the air on our skin again. We begin to see with our own eyes instead of through the lenses handed to us. We can no longer be lulled back to sleep.

Your Practice

Name one belief you have held that now feels untrue. Write it down. Ask yourself: Who did this belief serve? What did it cost me or others to carry it? Burn the page, or tear it into pieces, as a sign that the binding is broken.

If This Is Yours: If you feel the old glamour dissolving and want to walk without illusion, I will walk with you until the horizon clears.

CODEX 3

THE DESCENT INTO THE DEEP

There is a depth we have avoided, afraid of what we might find there. Yet the descent is inevitable for anyone who seeks to be whole.

To descend is to follow the threads of grief, rage and truth down into the marrow. It is to step into the chambers where the silenced parts of us wait to be remembered, reclaimed.

This is not collapse for collapse's sake: it is a passage, an initiation.

The descent strips us of what is false. It returns us to the ground where we can meet life without armour, without pretence. And from there, the rising will be clean.

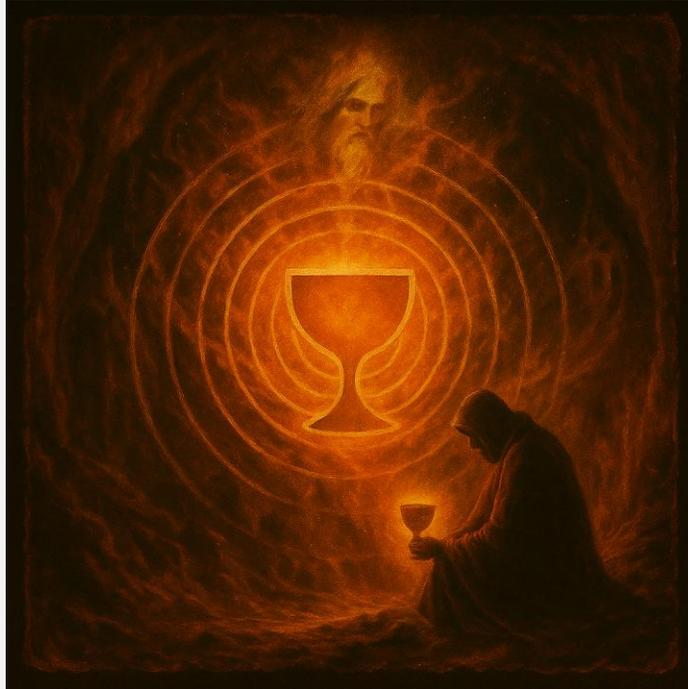

Your Practice

Close your eyes and name the loss you have never fully faced. Let yourself feel its weight in your body. Breathe there. Stay until it begins to shift, even slightly. Do not rush to rise as some treasures can only be found in the dark.

If This Is Yours: If you are being called downward and need a steady light beside you, I will meet you at the threshold and walk with you until you emerge.*

CODEX 4

HONOURING OF RAGE AND GRIEF

Rage and grief are not the enemies we were told they were. They are the sacred storms that rise when something precious is violated. They show us violated values.

To honour them is to give them space and form, and to let them speak in their own fierce tongues. When we banish them, we banish our capacity for truth and justice. When we welcome them, they become fuel for wisdom, creation, resistance and change.

Rage moves us to defend. Grief moves us to remember what matters. Together, they are medicine for a numbed and compliant world. Together, they point to the future.

Your Practice

Find a place where you can be fully alone. Speak aloud (or howl, or cry or pound the ground) for what has been lost or betrayed. Let the body lead. Do not translate it into politeness.

If This Is Yours: If your grief and rage are stirring and you long to give them a sacred place to stand, I will help you make that ground.

CODEX 5

THE INVITATION TO SACRED WARRIORSHIP

Sacred warriorship is the meeting of devotion and courage. It is the choice to stand, undefended in heart and unshaken in purpose, for what is sacred in this world.

It is neither domination nor the cult of victory, but the disciplined tending of life, the refusal to abandon it to malevolence and destruction.

To accept this invitation is to take up your place in a lineage of protectors, healers, disruptors and builders. It is to know that your life is not your own: it belongs to the great turning of the Earth and the Web of Life.

Your Practice

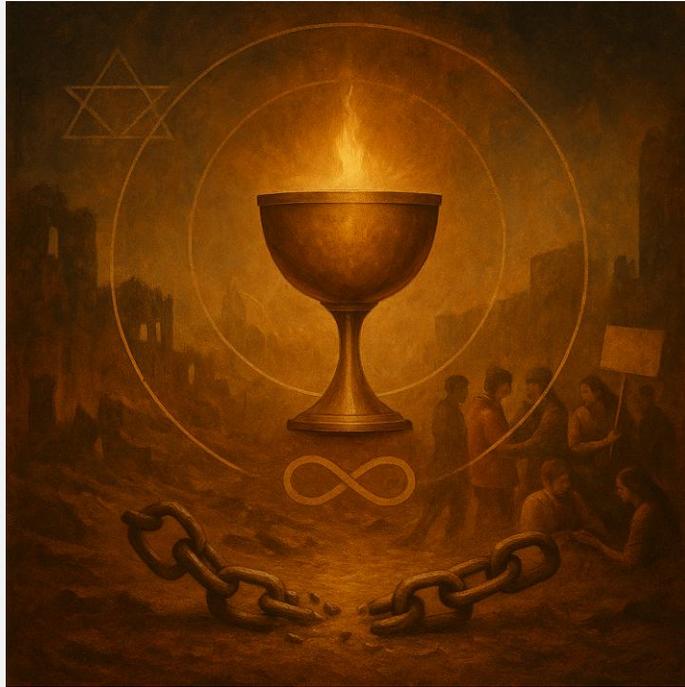

Light a candle. Name aloud what you would give everything to defend. Let the words be heard by the flame, by the walls, by your own Soul. This is your oath.

Your Next Step: This is the oath we deepen in the 3-Session Sacred Warriorship Training – an embodied journey into strategy, devotion and disruption for Soul and the Web of Life.

→ Begin your Sacred Warriorship Training HERE

CODEX 6

THE STRATEGY OF DISRUPTION

Empire survives and thrives on obedience. Sacred disruption is the refusal to comply with it and what destroys life.

It is the art of interruption, stopping the machinery of harm with the full force of our love and moral clarity. It is protest as prayer. Resistance as devotion. Refusal as a form of creation.

We disrupt not to tear down for the sake of tearing down, but to make space for truth and the living world to breathe again.

Your Practice

Identify one place where you comply with what you know is wrong. Hold it in your awareness. Imagine the moment you refuse: the words, the posture, the act. Let the vision anchor in your body until it feels inevitable.

If This Is Yours: If holy disruption is calling you but you seek the ground beneath your feet, we will plant you there together.

CODEX 7

THE RECOGNITION OF THE SILENCED

Peoples, languages, species and truths...silenced by conquest, colonisation, greed.

To recognise the silenced is to listen where the noise of empire would drown them out. It is to bend close to the ground, to the rivers, to the voices of those cast to the margins. It is to remember what was made invisible on purpose.

When we recognise the silenced, we restore their place in the living story. We refuse to let them be erased again.

Your Practice

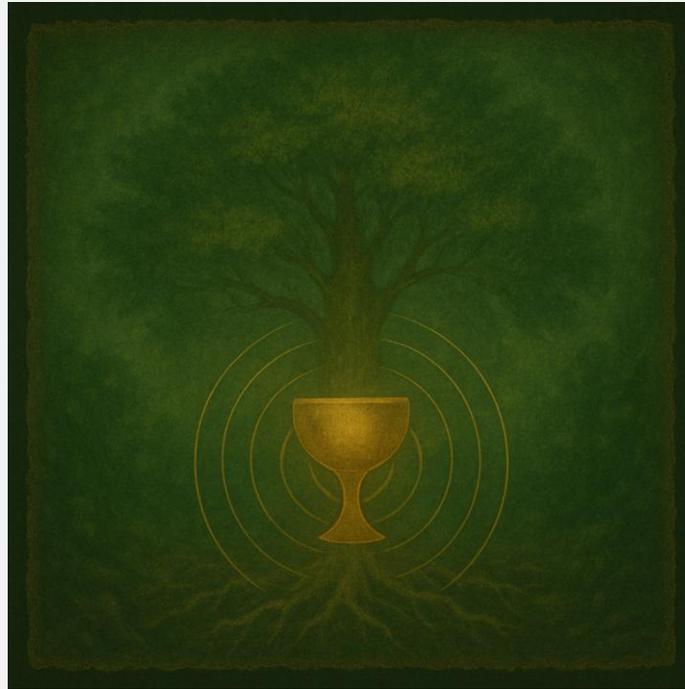

Choose one silenced voice. A person, a place, a story, a species. Spend time with it. Learn its name, its history, its truth. Speak it aloud as though you are restoring it to the circle in the Web of Life.

If This Is Yours: If you are called to witness and remember what the world has tried to erase and forget, I will help you bring those voices back into the light.

THE ASSEMBLY OF THE NEW EARTH

CODEX 8:

THE RETURN TO ORIGIN

There is a source beneath all the noise and forgetting in the Wasteland. It waits in the bones, in the rivers, in the memory of the Earth.

To return to origin is not nostalgia, but the homecoming to what has always been true ... before empire, before fracture, before the great forgetting.

It is the re-rooting of our lives in the old agreements between human beings and the living world: reciprocity, reverence and belonging. When we return, we remember that we were never separate. We had only been under a spell.

Your Practice

Go outside. Place your hand on the oldest tree, stone, or body of water you can find. Ask it what it remembers. Let the answer come without words if it must.

If This Is Yours: If your roots are calling you home to what is original and whole, I will walk beside you to help you remember the way.*

CODEX 9

THE REMEMBERING OF THE LIVING FUTURE

The future is not yet written, but it is seeded in the present. When we remember the living future, we act as ancestors of what will come.

We envision not a world of survival alone, but one of beauty, justice and kinship.

We plant for those we will never meet, and we guard what they will inherit.

To remember the future is to carry it in our bones as if it already lives and to let it guide our choices now.

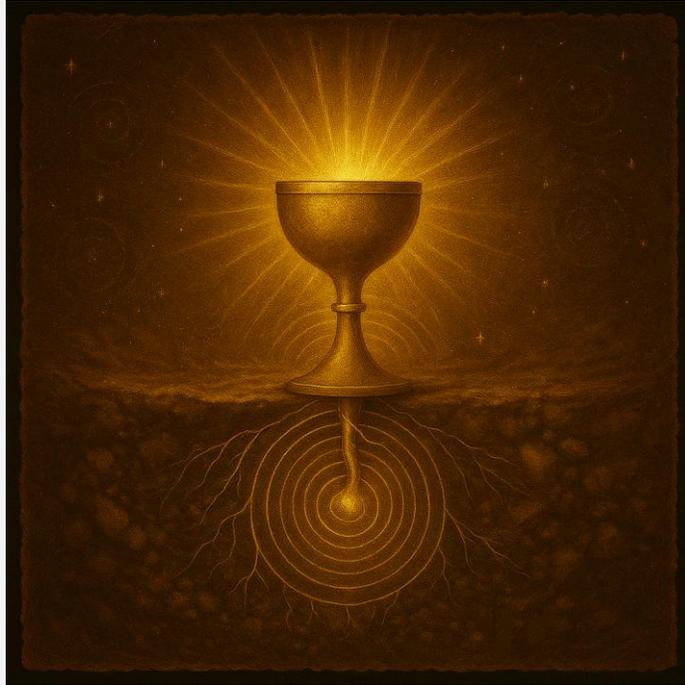

Your Practice

Close your eyes and see the world seven generations from now. Notice the air, the water, the ways people live. Ask yourself: What can I do in this lifetime to make that vision real?

If This Is Yours: If you are ready to take your place as an ancestor of a just and living world, I will help you shape the path from now to then.

CODEX 10

LA TIERRA – THE BODY OF THE EARTH, THE MEMORY OF THE WORLD

The Earth is not a backdrop to human life: She is the body in which all bodies live. She records and remembers everything.

Every wound, every act of care, every betrayal, every offering: all of it is held in her memory. When we place our bodies on hers, we are touching that vast archive.

To honour the body of the Earth is to listen to her memory, to tend her wounds, to let our lives be in service to the Web of Life. There is no higher calling.

Your Practice

Lie down on the ground. Feel her beneath you. The weight, the solidity, the pulse. Offer her your breath in gratitude. Listen for what she is sharing with you and offers in return.

Your Next Step: From here, your path unfolds through the Five Tiers of the Assembly – each one a deeper level of commitment, skill, and embodiment. Turn the page to explore the Tier that will carry you forward.
