

"UNDILAPIDATED RUINS"

JOSEPH D. TALAY

When the heavens showered beauty
There's a country that is only,
Made up of thousand islands
Full of seashores and highlands.

Our homeland was never bothered
From calamities that triggered
Our perseverance and resiliency
Remain constant as we ever see.

Typhoons, earthquakes, and wildfire
Are few disasters from the Pacific Ring of Fire
Filipinos may face destructive trials
Amidst darkness we became great orientals.

Pandemic, crisis and inflation
Made us Filipinos one great nation
In spite of countless adversity
We stood once again in unity.

We may be destroyed and ruined
But our determination will never be dimmed

A beautiful destruction may never be seen
Yet, love and hope create the greatest scene.
