A donation receipt will be sent at the end of the year to you via District mail and email, or your address on file with HR. To receive these funds, please use the "Request for Release of Dedicated Funds" LaserFiche form located on the Bonneville Education Website, to the right under "Quick Links." After approval of the use of funds by the principal and the Foundation Board Members at a bi-monthly meeting, the check will be sent to your building principal. You will be notified and you will use traditional purchasing channels in your building to purchase or be reimbursed for your qualified expenditure.

General Fund: Contributions to the General Fund allow the Bonneville Education Foundation to give funds to programs that need it most.

School Donations: Contributions can be designated for any school, classroom or program.

PTO Donations: Contributions can be designated for a school's Parent-Teacher Organization.

Teacher Grants: In the fall, the Bonneville Education Foundation offers mini grants to teachers' classrooms. Contributions for Teacher Grants help fund this program.

Mayors' Scholarship Fund: Initiated by the City of Idaho Falls, the local mayors, along with the Bonneville Education Foundation and Idaho Falls School District Education Foundation, provide scholarships and college bound programs for the community.
