

Flavors of France

A local cafe with a gorgeous interior and exterior.

The inviting outside dining area for Le Petit Paris

The smell of warm coffee in the air and fresh macaroons awaits you through the doors of Le Petit Paris. Located in Jacksonville, Florida this cafe will provide you with a small trip across the seas with the warm color tones and glass cases filled with fresh pastries creating a welcoming and elegant atmosphere. Alongside the atmosphere, the food is made to the highest standards and always served with a welcoming smile. From the charcuterie boards to the traditional French quiches, Le Petit Paris brings a variety of unique options to their diners. You will always have something new to try with their assorted breakfast and lunch options.

With their many dining options, you can sit inside the booths or maybe even outside to enjoy the breeze. Some of the menu options include; Le Pompidou, which is made of soft goat cheese, sun dried tomatoes, arugula, olive oil, and balsamic glaze. If tarts are your thing, maybe you should give the Lorraine a try. It is made of bacon, caramelized onions, and cheese. Looking to try a French baguette sandwich, Le Courchevel is one of the many offered sandwiches and is made of ham, baby Swiss, caramélisés onion and Dijon Mustard. Le Petit Paris has a choice for any of your flavor preferences. A little Paris is right at your back door.

You can read the full menu and catering here!

<https://lepetitparisjax.com/>

Located at Le Petit Paris a “Traditional Parisian Cafe” located in Jacksonville, Florida 9965 San Jose Blvd.