

The Principles of Kingdom Economy By Lennox Zamore, Senior Pastor

I. The P_____ of Economy

- At its core, every economy includes four basic functions: p_____, d_____, e_____, and c_____.

In the Kingdom:

- Production flows from s_____ not o_____.
- Distribution reflects j_____ and g_____, not c_____.
- Exchange operates through s_____ and r_____.
- Consumption is guided by s_____ and g_____.

II. The P_____ of Economy

- Economies are driven by b_____ and without a budget, the government s_____ d_____.
- In all kingdoms, including the Kingdom of God, budgets are the invisible engines that give l_____ their power.
- Every Kingdom assignment has a c_____, and every Kingdom law has a b_____.
- Wherever God's people align their s_____ with God's priorities, His will is f_____ into reality on earth.

III. The P_____ of Economy

- The fundamental component of an economy is a h_____, whether it is one or numerous people.
- A country is a composite of h_____ and is only as strong as they are.
- If you want to fix an economy, you must begin with its h_____.
- The word "economy" comes from the Greek "o_____" meaning "management of a household."
- Household is also the definition of s_____ which comes from an Old English word, "_____" meaning household.
- The most fundamental concept of Kingdom economy is that no one o_____ anything.
- Everything God has entrusted you with, is your m_____ and it is for His glory and the benefit of y_____ and o_____.
- Your mountain includes:
 - Managing your a_____ which is your c_____ or sphere of influence.
 - Managing your a_____ which are your f_____, r_____, g_____, and t_____.
 - Managing your a_____ which is your l_____ and i_____.
- The goal of stewardship is not personal gain but increase and expansion of God's Kingdom.

The following are the principles of Kingdom Economy:

A. The Principle of C_____ (Ownership vs. Stewardship)

- In worldly economies, possession defines power, but in the Kingdom partnership defines power.
- In the Kingdom, control is stewardship, not possession and believers manage God's resources to advance His Kingdom, not their p_____ g_____.
