was brought up by the Power of the Spirit, Rum.1:4; 8:11.f) He gave the commandment to His disciples and the Church through the Spirit, Acts 1:2.g) He is the Gifter of the Holy Spirit, Acts 2:33.V. FREE HOLY SPIRIT. Hardly any stage of the Spirit's teaching is more solemn than this one. This obliges all of us believers and non-believers to be careful in the way we treat the Holy Spirit. Sin against the Spirit is fraught with stunning consequences. For the sake of convenience, we classify crimes against the Spirit under two common namely, those committed by the unbeliever, and those committed by the believer. Not that there is absolutely no overlap in any way. For, of course, the very nature of the case must be. This thought will be kept in mind when studying crimes against the Spirit.1. DO NOT UNBELIEVER.a) Resistance to the Holy Spirit.Acts 7:51- You always resist the Holy Spirit. Here is a picture of the Holy Spirit attacking the citadel of the soul of a man who fiercely resists the Grace Spirit's attempts to conquer it. Despite the simplest arguments and the most irrefutable facts, this man willfully rejects the evidence and refuses to accept Christ so convincingly presented. Thus, the Holy Spirit resisted. (See Acts 6:10.) The fact that this is the true picture of resistance to the Holy Spirit is clearly evident from Stephen's recital of facts in Acts 7:51-57.b) Insult, or Despite the Holy Spirit. Heb.10:29 (Wed. Luke 18:32). It is the work of the Spirit to present the redemption of Christ's work as a basis for his pardon. When a sinner refuses to believe or accept the testimony of the Spirit, he thereby insults the Spirit by revering all Christ's work as a deception and a lie, or sees the death of Christ as the death of an ordinary or ordinary person, not as God's position of sinner.c) The blasphemy of the Holy Spirit. Matt.12:31.32. This seems to be the most grave sin of all, for the Master claims that there is no forgiveness for this sin. Sins against the Son of Man can be forgiven because it was easily possible, because of his humble birth, humble origin, etc., to question the claims he made to the deity. But when the Holy Spirit came after Pentecost and presented each man's conscience with evidence sufficient to prove the truth of these allegations, the man who then refused to yield to Christ's claims was guilty of resistance, insult, and this amounted to blasphemy from the testimony of all God, of which the Spirit is the executive director. THE WORLD. BELIEVER.a) The Sorrow of the Spirit. Eph.4:30, 31; Isa.63:10 (R.V.). To grieve means to be sad or sad. This word is used to describe christ's experience in Hefseman; and therefore Hefseman's sorrow can be experienced by the Holy Spirit. The Spirit is God's most sensitive man. He is called the mother - the heart of God. The context of this passage (v.31) tells us how the Spirit can be distressed by stupid conversations and jokes. Whenever a believer allows any of the things mentioned in this verse (and those that are also listed in Gal.5:17-19) to find a place in his heart and expression in his words and life; when these things are in his heart and actively manifested, then the Spirit is sad and grieving. Indeed, to abandon any part of our moral nature to the full influence of the Spirit is to it. If we continue to grieve for the Spirit, grief becomes an annoyance (Isa.63:10.b) Lies to the Holy Spirit.Acts 5:3, 4. The sin of lying to the Spirit is very outstanding when consecration is the most popular. We stand in and say: I give up to everyone when in our hearts we know that we have not surrendered everything. However, like Ananias, we like it when others believe that we have dedicated all our efforts. We don't want to be one behind the others in our profession. The beads are carefully in this regard the story of Achan (Jesus Navin 7), and that Hehazi (2 Kings 5:20-27).c) The quenching of the Spirit.1 Thess.5:19- To quench not the Spirit. The thought of the fading of the Spirit seems to be used in connection with fire: Smoking flax it should not quench (Matthew.12:20); Queer Fiery Darts (Eph.6:16). Therefore, it has more to do with the thought of service than with the thought of life. This is evidenced by the context of 1 Thess.5:19. The manifestation of the Spirit in the prophecy should not have been quenched. The Holy Spirit is believed to descend on this collected congregation for praise, prayer, and testimony. This manifestation of the Spirit should not be quenched. In this way, we can quench the Spirit not only in our hearts, but also in the hearts of others. As? Disloyalty to the voice and call of the Spirit; to disobey his voice, whether to testify, praise, to do any service to God, or to refuse to go where He sends us to work - a foreign field, for example. Let us also be careful not to criticize the manifestation of the Spirit in the testimony of some believer, or the sermon of some preacher, we will not be found guilty of quenching the Spirit. Let us see that the gift of the Holy Spirit to service is not lost by infidelity or by the cultivation of a critical spirit on our part, so that the fire in our hearts will be extinct and there is nothing left but ashes - ashes, a sign that the fire was once there, but was extinguished. From what has been said, we can briefly learn: resistance is associated with the regenerating work of the Spirit; Mourning deals with the indwelling of the Holy Spirit; Quenching deals with the endment of the Spirit to serve.
