It is the most popular Twenty20 tournament and the second largest paid sports league in the world. The IPL was founded in 2008 and now consists of eight teams in eight cities across India. The first season of the APL was won by the Rajasthan Royals. There have been twelve seasons of the APL tournament since May 2019. The last season was held from March to May 2019, and the Mumbai Indians won the title. The IPL tournament includes each team, playing each other team twice in the format of home and away, double round tournament. At the end of the double round championship, based on the aggregate points, the top four teams advance to the playoffs. At this stage, the two best teams compete against each other (in a match called Qualifier 1), as well as the other two teams (in a match called Liquidator). While the winner of the qualifier 1 directly qualifies for the final match, the losing team gets another chance to qualify for the final match by playing the winning team of the match Eliminator; This match is called Qualifier 2. The winner of this subsequent match of qualifying tournament 2 advances to the final match. The team that wins the final match Premier League champion. In total, thirteen teams have played in the last ten seasons of the APL tournament. Of these, five teams are no longer part of the tournament. In 2011, BCCI terminated the Kochi Tuskers Kerala franchise for breach of contract. Similarly, the BCCI terminated the Deccan Chargers franchise in 2012 for reneding on its obligations. Pune Warriors India withdrew from the IPL in 2013 after a disagreement over the franchise's valuation with the BCCI. Chennai Super Kings and Rajasthan Royals were suspended in 2015 because of a betting dispute. However, in July 2017, the BCCI announced that both Chennai Super Kings and Rajasthan Royals will be admitted to IPL competitions from the 2018 season. Eight teams from the 2019 season took part in the tournament, including Delhi Capitals, Kings XI Punjab, Kolkata Knight Riders, Royal Challengers Bangalore, Rajasthan Royals, Chennai Super Kings, Sunrisers Hyderabad and Mumbai Indians. The Mumbai Indians are the most successful team in league history, winning four titles. Chennai Super Kings, Sunrisers Hyderabad, Kolkata Knight Riders and Rajasthan Royals, in addition to the former Deccan Chargers team, are the other teams that have won the tournament title as of May 2019.
