Rachel Williams

“What’s a Girl to do?!”

Learning how to choose well in a busy, chaotic world.

Life is full of endless, pressing, time-consuming decisions. Does it ever feel like you just get swept along in life, never truly choosing what to say “Yes” and “No” to? Does it feel like time owns you, and not the other way around? Rachel Williams is a busy mom to 8 who writes books, runs a ministry, and leads worship at her church. Oh, and she dates her husband too! She is going to share with us how she has learned to stop the crazy cycle of being dragged along in life and make conscious decisions in saying “Yes” and saying “No”.

Each month Women with Purpose highlights a Chippewa Valley area non-profit that could use a little help from us. If you feel led to do so, we ask you to donate needed items for our monthly target charity. We take care of delivering the items on behalf of our Women with Purpose attendees. In this small way we can make a big impact in our community.

Purposeful Partner for February Eau Claire Warming Center

OUR MISSION

The recently opened Eau Claire Warming Center located at 502 S. Farwell St., is owned by Christ Church Cathedral. Although it is not set up for people to sleep overnight, it is another alternative to help keep the homeless safe during our brutal Wisconsin winters. Volunteer staff is on hand 24/7 to provide some activities, snacks, warm drinks, and a warm place to hang out for people in need. Below are items that can be brought to our February 19th luncheon:

Nonperishable snacks (single servings) such as:

Granola/breakfast bars

Nuts

Crackers

Cookies

Juice boxes

Chips

Fruit cups

Instant Oatmeal Cups

Notebooks

Pens and Pencils

Coloring books and pencils

Board games

Playing Cards

Small devotionals

Small Bibles

Hand Warmers

Hats

Mittens/Gloves

Scarves

Socks
