The Moral Panic of the President Have you ever noticed how desperate the left has been lately to prove that Donald Trump's presidency is somehow a threat to America's moral values and institutions? If you've been around the liberal commentariat for the past few days you've seen almost daily stories that have nothing to do with Trump, but everything to do with, well, you. For instance, there was the "Pedophilia is Back in the Saddle" Post at Jezebel.com, or a piece at Salon.com by a professor who showed how one of the only four remaining women in the Senate told us all about her "deeply unsettled" feelings while meeting with the president of the United States. Or how about The Atlantic's big piece on the growing "alt-right" under Trump, a "movement" made up of white supremacists? And don't you love the author's anecdote about
