

Pack·A·Sack

A secondary outreach program of the Twigs Free Summer Lunch Program for children, Twigs: Pack-a-Sack (begun in 2013) provides food to children in 14 school districts who are at risk of having nothing to eat over the weekend. The children are identified by the individual building's principals and social workers. The names and the faces of all the children in the program are kept anonymous. Each child in the program receives a sack of non-perishable food items each Friday.

YOU CAN HELP by donating one or more of the following items and placing it in this container.

- Pudding Cups
- Jello Cups
- Applesauce Cups
- Fruit Cups
- Small Boxes of Raisins
- Granola Bars
- Ramen Noodles
- Mac 'n Cheese
- Cheese 'n Crackers
- Hot Cocoa Mix (Pouches)
- Beef Jerky Sticks
(Small, Individually Wrapped)

In the 2017/2018 school year we provided 31,383 bags of food to children in 12 school districts.

PLEASE...NOTHING WITH PEANUTS or PEANUT BUTTER!
