

Kristen Kibler, a Charles County Native, has been dancing since the age of two. Kristen grew up dancing at Debbie Manoly's academy of Dance and began competing when she was five years old, falling quickly in love with Tap, Jazz, Lyrical & Ballet. At the age of 16 Kristen began assisting & teaching her own dance classes. After high school, Kristen attended Salisbury State University and majored in Education & Psychology. While attending Salisbury, Kristen choreographed and danced for the dance team. In 2004 Kristen became a professional cheerleader for the Washington Redskins. During her two years with the Redskins, not only did she perform at football games but also traveled to different countries on the USO Tour with some of her fellow cheerleaders. After cheering with the Redskins, Kristen became a pre-school teacher in Charles County and started teaching at Dance Depot in Waldorf, MD. During the last 14 years, Kristen has taught a broad range of dance genres. These include, Tap, Jazz, Hip Hop, Lyrical, Ballet, Contemporary and Musical Theatre. Kristen's passion for dance continues to run strong and she is excited to have this amazing opportunity to teach with BFunk!
