A website developed by No. Maharashtra Visitor No. BJP refuses to accept the governor's proposal to form a government in maharashtraBDP state alone lacking numbers, thus casting the scene open to more uncertainty. No CM post, but the BJP can offer key ministries to appease SenaRedrawing's priorities with five days left until the new government is to be sworn in, along with the proceeds, the BJP could part ways with the Treasury. The party, however, holds firm homes and urban development portfolios. Along with the proceeds, we could part with the finances, although this is not final, said the BJP leader, who did not want to be identified. The seine softens the stand, Fadnavis says saffron alliance govt soonShiv Sena leader Sanjay Raut said he was in no hurry to form the next government and dismissed speculation that Shiv Sena could split if there was a delay in the formation of a new Council of Ministers.Sena flaunts another option to extract a pound of bjp flesh the Seine is trading hard for an equal share in power, which means an equal number of ministries and a rotational CM. The Seine won 56 seats in the Electoral Assembly. Both sides have been known for difficult deals in the past as well. FIR vs. Sharad Pawar did the damage while 370 may not have clicked: BJP Leaders Wanted was the initial view that over reliance on Article 370 may have damaged the BJP's electoral chances in Maharashtra, the party now believes that while it may not have benefited from the issue, it did not damage its prospects. The BJP insists on printing a deal to form Maharashtra governmentDeputy CM post Aadiya Thackeray on the table. Shiv Sena requires that the CM post be rotated with each party holding it for two and a half years. Shah could visit Mumbai on Wednesday to close talks with Sena Brass. Don't force us to look for an alternative, Sanjay Raut warns an ally of BJPEver since the results were announced on October 24, there have been statements from sections in the Congressional-NCP, though not officially, hinting that the Move of the Seine to look after the BJP to form a government could get positive such. Maharashtra will soon get a BJP-led government: BJPBJP spokesman G V L Narasimha Rao noted that the BJP has become the largest party by a wide margin with its tally of seats larger than the total opposition alliance of Congress and the NCP. Amid the suspense, the BJP, Sena leaders meet the governor separately Amid the uncertainty over the formation of the government, the leaders of the ruling allies, the Bharatiya Janata Party and Shiv Met Maharashtra Governor B.S. Koshyari is apart here on monday. Amid The Unknown, BJP, Sena Leaders Meet Meet Separately, the uncertainty over the formation of the government, the leaders of the ruling allies, the Bharatiya Janata Party and Shiv Sena, met Maharashtra Governor B.S. Koshyari is apart here in the monday. Locked in a power struggle, the BJP and Sena are trying to win over independent MLAsBoth parties now trying to win the support of independent MLAs, most of them rebels belonging to either party to score Uddhav now has remote control of power in Maharashtra, says SenaShiv Sena and the BJP are in the midst of tough negotiations after the BJP returned less than impressive performance in the assembly polls, the results of which were announced on October 24 , with 105 seats against 122 in 2014. Formation of the next government in Maharashtra State is not an option for the NCP: Sharad PawarThe BJP became the largest party winning 105 seats in the recently completed Assembly elections , with the Seine, The NCP, and Congress gets 56, 54 and 44 seats respectively in the 288 members of the House. It all in the family through the party in the new Maharashtra AssemblyBrothers Amit and Dhiraj Deshmukh, sons of Latour Strongman and former Chief Minister of Congress late Vilasrao Deshmukh were elected from Latour City and Latour rural seats, respectively. Maharashtra: Congress, the NCP have ruled out supporting the Sen to keep the BJP out of powerIn the 288-member Assembly, the BJP won 105 seats, while ally Sen bagged 56. The NCP won 54 seats and Congress won 44 seats. The results of the poll were announced on Thursday on October 21. Maharashtra poll results rap on the knuckles of arrogant rulers: SenaChief Minister Devendra Fadnavis visited more than 200 constituencies, out of a total of 288, during his Maha Janadesh Yatra on the eve of the october 21 vote. Sena said the result was a rap on the knuckles for those high on the arrogance of power. The BJP-Sena tally rises in the desirable areas of the state - Gadchiroli, Osmanabad, Wasim and Nandurbar, selected for accelerated development - saw an increase in the number of polls for the BJP-Shiv Sena Alliance in polls completed yesterday. Article 370 as a key campaign board may not have worked for the BJP in Maharashtrah although the BJP-Sena alliance retained power in the state, the Congress and the Nationalist Congress Party (NPC) did better this time compared to the 2014 polls. Now, things wouldn't be much easier for the BJP as they were last time. Sharad Pawar's one-man show proves he is a formidable force in Maharashtra's 79-year-old nationalist party congress chief Sharad Pawar threw a wet towel over the BJP victory parade, making a huge dent in the BJP's attempt to return to power in the state on its own. And, he managed to strengthen his reputation in Maharashtra.Maharashtra polls: The emergence of strong opposition sees the BJP before the more assertive Shiv Senas BJP suffers erosion in Counting from recent times around, the party has stopped far from being a majority on its own, making it more dependent on its sluggish ally. The numbers changed the equation and made things difficult for the BJP. Maharashtra denies Maha victory for the BJP, the party suffers a Jat jolt in Haryanahh although the BJP will form a government in Maharashtra state with Shiv Sena and probably get the numbers in Haryana, the party will have to introspection what went wrong after a resounding victory, just a few months ago, in the Lok Sabha election. Maharashtra poll results: Shiv Sena has a great wish list for BJPSHiv Sena, seems interested in the game after polling the numbers of the game in their favor. He will try to correct the course on the coalition of dharma. Sena also admires Sharad Pawar's excellent campaign that led to big election victories for the NCP. Kind: The BJP's nationalist narratives don't always steamroll over livelihoods, shows people continue to be guided by individual and conventional problems when making decisions locally. Wake up call to the BJP, the return of regional satraps: A quick takeaway from Maharashtra, Haryana pollsThe election results in Haryana and Maharashtra came as a moral booster for the dying Congress.Devendra Fadnavis, Chandrakant Patil, Aadiya Thackeray sail through; Pankaja Munde among the key losersDevendra Fadnavis, the BJP's first chief minister of Maharashtra, retained his Nagpur southwestern seat for a fifth consecutive term, while Thackeray, the first member of his family to contest the polls, emerged victorious in Worli, central Mumbai.View: Democracy deals arrogance blowAnother notion that bites the dust is a contentious divorce. Both should have on the dynamics of democracy. Aadiya becomes the first Thackeray to enter Maharashtra, the Yuva Sena leader is now likely to make his party, which was rooted in the sons of the soil agenda, and then embraced the ideology of Hindutva, more inclusive and broad-based. Uddhav Thackeray emphasizes a 50-50 formula for power-sharing with BJPWhile the two parties can form a government comfortably, the BJP fell short of its goal of achieving near half way mark in itself, giving more leverage to Sena.Adiya Thackeray: On the cusp of crowning glory? Rising from the steps, soft-spoken and fresh graduate Aditya Thackeray was catapulted as leader of the Yuva Sena party in 2010, and in 2018 was nominated as leader of Shiv Sena. At the beginning of his life he published a collection of poems. Aadiya Thackeray wins in Worli, defeats NCP candidate by more than 70,000 votes 29-year-old Yuva Sena chief, who is the first member of the Thackeray family to contest the election, defeated his NCP rival Suresh Mane with more than 70,000 votes. People didn't like the arrogance of power: Sharad Pawar in the Maharashtra Maharashtra elections Calling the leaders of the ruling parties, Sharad Pawar also noted that some people have crossed the line of extreme views. He also noted that those who left the opposition camp to join the ruling parties were not accepted by the people. Will not form a government with Shiv Sena; the results show that people don't like the arrogance of power, says Sharad PawarV the latest trends, the BJP has been ahead in 102 constituencies and its ally Shiv Sena leads in 61 seats, taking a combined tally of up to 163 seats in the 288-seat Maharashtra Assembly.BJP-Sena to form Maharashtra government, will stick to the formula '50-50': Sanjay Raut ruled out the possibility of Shiv Sena joining the opposition parties to form a government. The BJP and Shiv Sena will form a government in Maharashtra, he told reporters. Priority to keep the BJP out of power: Maharashtra Congress spokespersonCongress spokesman Sachin Sawant tweeted: Congress's priority will keep the BJP out of power. However, Sanjay Laha Patil, a member of the congressional campaign committee, criticized Sawant for his tweet. THE BJP-Shiv Sena on its way to power in Maharashtra state, no clear winner in the HaryanaWhile BJP, does not seem headed for the decisive victory he expected in the states he ruled for five years, Congress has sidelined its NCP partner in Maharashtra, but could significantly better his tally in Haryana.Maharashtra election results: Key moments and more here are the highlights of the 2019 polls. Maharashtra Assembly Polls: BJP, Shiv Sena on course to maintain powerPoimo ruling BJP-Sena and Congress-NCP, other important parties in the fight include: Raj Thackeri Maharashtra Navnirman Seine, Prakash Ambedkar Vanchit Bahujan Agadi, Owaisis' All Mejlis India-and-Itteulhad. The BJP would not be able to form a government without the support of Shiv Sen: Sanjay RautH, although most exit polls predicted a clear majority for the BJP-led alliance of the Seine and other parties, at least one such forecast gave the BJP almost a majority on its own. Cities cool, voting higher in rural areas in Maharashtra and HaryanaFulhasnagar, Kalyan East and Andheri West reported less than 40% of the vote, while Panipat City and Karnal, Haryana's chief election minister, reported less than 50%. Meanwhile, the polls were peaceful in Maoist-infested Gadchiroli.Many corporate biggies did not show up at the polls Test, who cast their votes included Mahindra Group Chairman Anand Mahindra, HDFC Chief Executive Keki, Mariko Chairman Harsh Mariwala, and MLM Managing Director Papan Goenka.63% of the votes in the Maharashtra Assembly poll; Turnout, similar to the 2014 statewide turnout, was better, with voters there showing more enthusiasm than their urban counterparts. Vote 7 a.m. and ended at 6 p.m. Generally Percent of voters exercised their deductible until 5 p.m., a poll spokesman said. Maharashtra Exit Polls: The BJP-Sena is set to return to power, conveniently placed according to most BJP polls fielding their candidates in 164 seats in the Assembly, including candidates from smaller allies contesting its lotus symbol, while Shiv Sena contests 124 seats. In addition to the assembly elections, goodbyes were held. Voters wowed Maharashtra's all-female polling boothThe Sakhi Matdaan Kendra, a fun-decorated polling station run by all-female staff, was seen drawing hordes of voters on the decor he created with rangolis, pink balloons sticking out pink curtains setting the mood positive. Positive.
