SCREWS BIT

WURTH ASSY RW20 BIT

$6.25

Patented RW bit for Wurth ASSY screws.

The RW bit fits deep into the ASSY countersunk milling pocket head, providing maximum power transmission and allowing significant movement of the impact driver with the screw placed at the tip of the bit.

Compatible with impact drivers ($\frac{1}{4}$ inch hex attachment).

The RW20 is also compatible with previous internal drive AW20.

WURTH WOOD SCREWS

*indicative price only (per 100)

These WURTH screws combined with the RW20 bit are the best to install climbing holds to wooden panels with ease. Many climbing centres in Australia, Europe, Asia, etc have been using these screws in recent years and there is no going back!

The bit fits perfectly in the drive, ensuring a higher level of stability and precise positioning during the screwing process. Most importantly, screwing can be carried out much easier with one hand than most other types of wood screws. These save considerable time and energy to setters who already have to deal with balancing themselves on ladders and ropes.

ANTI-CLIMBING MATS

Custom-made, Durable, Safe and Secure System

The anti-climbing mat system has 2 functions:

- 1) Provides an impact attenuating system beneath the climbers when placed on the floor.

- 2) Prevents unsupervised climbing when secured across the wall.

Public will not be able to access the wall while the mat is up as it covers all possible hand and foot holds up to 2.7m high.

Once placed on the floor, the mat straps can be tucked away easily, making the mat obstacle free.

The TNUT “no climbing” decal shows the climbing wall is closed.

Several colours available.

It features an ingenious key locking mechanism which guarantees only authorised members can bring the mats to the floor.

A simple key is needed to access the wall. No specific tools required.

COLOUR MATCHING SERVICE

TNUT Climbing offers a range of eye-catching colours and colours used by other hold manufacturers in Europe and the US. Provided you have few weeks up your sleeves, TNUT Climbing will attempt to match your existing hold colour (minimum order applies).

TECHNICAL INFORMATION:

- Holds are made of resistant polyurethane material.
- Screw holes are meticulously placed to prevent spinning holds.
- The texture is the perfect balance between comfort and friction.
- All holds are engineered with stainless steel washers for longevity.
- Designed and produced by Remi Vignals, experienced rock climber and route setter.

ATTACHMENT SYSTEM

Most of TNUT's BOLT-ON HOLDS have 2 holes:

- The 10mm diameter hole is for fixing the hold into a standard imperial 3/8" t-nut and requires 3/8" (UNC) socket head bolts of varying lengths (from 1" ¼ to 4" ½). M10 t-nuts will require M10 socket head bolts.
- The 3/16" (~5mm) diameter hole prevents the holds from spinning. We recommend using non-self-drilling timber screws of 8G/10G x 30mm to 70mm.

TNUT's SCREW-ON HOLDS have at least two holes of diameter 3/16". We recommend using non-self-drilling timber screws of 10G x 30mm to 50mm. Wurth ASSY screws are highly recommended to any serious setters and climbing/bouldering centres.

All 10mm holes and most 3/16" holes have been reinforced with marine grade stainless steel washers (316).

Bolts and/or screws are not supplied with standard sets of holds. They can be purchased separately.

All prices include GST.
