

Name: _____

Date: _____

Insects - Lesson 4

Across

2. a hard outer layer that covers the body of an invertebrate animal such as an insect
3. the process by which the young form of insects or frogs change into the adult form
7. a powder, usually yellow, produced by the male part of a flower
10. a damaged area of the body, such as a cut or hole in the skin or flesh made by a weapon
12. to partner with an animal of the same species to produce more babies
14. a group of animals, insects, or plants of the same type that live together
15. an animal that feeds on flesh of its own species

Down

1. an animal with no spine (backbone)
4. a helpful or good effect, or something intended to help
6. a sweet liquid produced by flowers and collected by bees and other insects
8. a large group of insects, esp. flying ones; or any large busy group
11. a person who is in an army, especially someone who fights when there is a war
12. a large pile of something like soil, stones, grain etc.; like a small hill
13. a surprise attack by one or more beings who have been hiding and waiting for them
14. a way of hiding by blending in with your surroundings
16. a taking very small bites of something