Dear Possibility Manager,

It is painful (fear, plus sadness, plus anger) to write a ‘newsletter’ about Possibility when the most electric news on our minds is the European methane gas lines being turned off thus severing a central source of winter heating in Germany while forcing possible electricity-blackouts, along with the monster hurricane roaring across Florida uprooting so many lives, plus losing 10% of the total purchasing power of your money this year from unchecked global inflation, while at the same time uninitiated adolescents sit nervously with their fingers hovering near nuclear warhead missile controls, waiting for orders from their 'superiors'.

Knowing about these situations is one thing. Being able to take action about them for yourself, your friends, families, and community is another thing entirely.

You may sit suffering silently in overwhelm asking yourself, “What then shall I do?” But do real answers come to your question? Do you organize your friends and take Radical Actions? Or do you merely try to protect yourself against further despair, thinking, “This is too much for me! It’s too big to even think about!”

How can you become a Person of Agency in your life? In the world? This question has been at the core of Possibility Management since its inception in 1975. Human beings have so much incredible Potential, yet we exhibit so little initiative for Nonlinear, Unreasonable, or Experimental action. What gets in the way? What holds us back? What confuses us? What blocks us?

It is not that we do not know how. It is simply that we do not. We freeze up, justify, hide-out like fish in a school. We use ‘Fish Thoughtware’ to reflexively turn around and hide in the ordinary mob of humanity for ‘safe’ invisibility. The moment we might begin to stand out at the edge and make the changes we came here to make, we resort to our Survival Strategy.

This is neither ‘good’ nor ‘bad’. However, it definitely keeps you in a state of ‘survival’ rather than enlivening you to action.

If it is time for you to stand up, get clarity, speak out, say “No!” or “Stop!”, make boundaries, make new decisions, say what you want, start new behaviors, organize, and cause changes in your life – for real – the best thing we have found for this is Rage Club. A thousand Rage Clubbers have already found their voices.

You need no longer hang back, powerless. Online or offline, in Rage Club you find a Team of like-minded courageous individuals ready to help each other get their lives turned on.

When you are ready to develop more formidable Spaceholder Skills, the next Rage Club Spaceholder Training starts in October in English, and soon thereafter the first one ever in Polish!
