Dear Friend of Possibility Management,

We begin this year with a quote from the Fellowship of Intentional Communities:

Our Online Communities Directory is the #1 resource for people to find and engage with intentional communities of all kinds – ecovillages, cohousing, co-living, coops, agrihoods and more. Our website has half-a-million visitors each year, 75% of whom are looking to visit or join a community. Our on-demand course Finding your Community with Cynthia Tina covers how to find intentional communities, assess them, contact and prepare for a visit, and join a community.

If 'finding your community' is part of your 2023 Gameplan, then you might want to add one more Distinction to your search criteria: What is each community's Context?

The 'context' of a gameworld is its relationship to consciousness and responsibility.

Responsibility is applied consciousness.

Try this. Gather your people together and ask the following question of each person involved: There is a spectrum of overall responsibility you can take from one to five. Which do you Stand for in this project?

1. AVOIDING RESPONSIBILITY: Living under a bridge, being in prison, uninitiated Gremlin is in charge.
2. CHILD LEVEL RESPONSIBILITY: Making messes with no awareness about or capacity for cleaning them up.
3. ADULT LEVEL RESPONSIBILITY: When responsibilities are divided up and shared 'fairly'. Authentic Adulthood Initiatory Processes start here.
4. HIGH LEVEL RESPONSIBILITY: Picking up a piece of trash even if you did not drop it. Guardianship. Kaitiaki. Spaceholding starts here.
5. RADICAL RESPONSIBILITY: It is impossible to be a victim. There is no such thing as a 'problem'. Everything is neutral. What is, is, as it is here and NOW with no Stories attached. Stories exist in time. NOW is too small for stories. Transformed Gremlin. Decontaminated Adult Egostate. Clarity. Possibility. Radical Relating. Archetypal Love.

Once everyone understands the differences between these five Contexts, ask each person to Stand – actually physically stand up – while you read off one through five, to signal their Commitment to a minimum of this level of Responsibility in your project. The diversity of your Stands gives everyone a clear picture of to what degree the Context of your Gameworld is a Mixed Context or a Clear Context. Keep in mind that agenda of every meeting in a Mixed Context Gameworld is the unanswered question: What is the Context of our Gameworld?

If you sense a community culture you would love to inhabit but you cannot seem to find it already existing, it is probably your job to Cavitate, Hold, and Navigate that cultural Context in a project... even if you start as a Bridge-House.
