Gypsy jazz accordion lessons

Hello, my name is Johnny Kerry, I am a gypsy jazz accordionist and decided to make the first gypsy jazz accordion site since there is not much on the internet. This is a list of what the site will soon have to offer. thanks to - Licks (More than 200 Printed Charts) (Lessons) - Play with chat and forum (Shop) Share on FacebookShare on Twitter Johnny Kerry has been playing the Accordion for more than 15 years and specializes in the genre of gypsy jazz for more than 10 years. During this time he has performed at hundreds of venues and festivals across the UK and Europe. Aside from performing with some of the UK's best musicians in the genre, Johnny is considered one of the UK's leading jazz accordionists. He is a professional, passionate and dedicated musician. Whether you are a beginner or a professional looking for advice, motivation or direction, Johnny can help you take your game to the next level. Johnny approach to learning is all about simplifying and destroying theories and ideas so they are easy to understand and accessible. This class is not currently available in our catalog. Visit our ensemble program page for other related options. Louis Beier must be the most prolific gypsy jazz accordionist. He regularly performs around the world and has already exhibited tons of recordings with major guitarists in the genre of Gypsy Jazz.His technical virtuosity seems limitless, and his inventive groove and rhythmic interpolations are always cunning and interesting. If you don't already know his work, you'll be amazed.2 Source Manouche - Marcel Loeffler (buy CD on Amazon) You can find the entire album on Spotify.Marcel is an extremely lyrical player who shakes his own. Mythistic adding to his musicality the facts that he is blind and he is a member of the Roma community. But aside from this gossip, his lines are amazing bebop-manouche poems, and his articulation of these jazz lines with accents and ghost notes are both swinging and hip. His band and this record has that amazing huge sound that I found on Birell's recordings.
