Guardians of the galaxy awesome mix

2014 soundtrack albums Guardians of the Galaxy: Awesome Mix Vol. 1 (Original Movie Soundtrack) is the soundtrack album for marvel Studios movie Guardians of the Galaxy. Thanks to the songs present at Peter Quill's mixtape in the film, the album was released by Hollywood Records on July 29, 2014. A separate album, Guardians of the Galaxy (Original Score), composed by Tyler Bates, was also released by Hollywood Records on the same day, along with a luxury version of both albums. The soundtrack reached number one on the Billboard 200 in the United States, becoming the first soundtrack to an album in history entirely consisting of previously released songs to top up the chart. The album topped the Billboard Top Soundtracks for 11 consecutive weeks and 16 weeks in total. As of April 2017, more than 1.75 million copies have been sold in the U.S. alone, and have been certified platinum by the RIAA. The album became the second best-selling soundtrack in the United States in 2014, following the soundtrack to Frozen. In August 2013, the film's director James Gunn wrote on his Facebook page that Tyler Bates would compose the film's score. Gunn said Bates would write some scores in the first place so he could shoot to the music, as opposed to scoring the film. In February 2014, Gunn admitted that the film would include songs from the 1960s and 1970s, such as Hooked on a Feeling, on a mixtape in the Walkman of Kwila, which acts as a way for him to stay connected to the Earth, home and family he lost. In May 2014, Gunn added that the use of songs from the 60s and 70s was cultural reference points, saying, It strikes the balance throughout the film, through something unique, but also something that is easily accessible to people at the same time. Music and Earth Stuff is one of those touchstones that we have to remind us that, yes, quill is a real man from planet Earth who is just like you and me. By September 2014, Guardians of the Galaxy: Awesome Mix Vol. 1 became the second-best-selling soundtrack in the U.S. (after Frozen) with 426,000 copies sold at the time. The album was also the second soundtrack to the album released by Disney Music Group in the same year (also after Frozen), which reached No. 1 on the aforementioned chart. The album was certified by the Recording Industry Association of America eight weeks after its release. An exclusive vinyl LP edition of the soundtrack was also released on September 16, 2014. Until December 2019, 367,000 copies of the vinyl record had been sold; makes LP the third best-selling vinyl album of the decade. It sold 1.75 million copies in the United States, with 11,000 copies sold by cassette tapes. In 2014, more than 2.5 million copies of Guardians of the Galaxy: Awesome Mix Vol were sold worldwide. 1x.
