What do you think and personal experience using the effective guide Oziris Ironaman? I made my own Ironman about 150 hours of total playing time. I have some decent base combat statistics as well as 80 agility, but I am considering creating a new account after the Oziris leadership. My current problem is that I don't have time to play RS, so with the limited time I play I like to see progression, so I play on my core. I would really like to ply Ironman and I feel using the guide to tell me what to do makes the process easier for me. I really don't want to follow the guide any more as I don't want to rush 84 blackjacking theft. I'm thinking about stopping the guide and making it graceful. Are there other things to get knocked out early that are useful? My goal is to get Burrows gloves first. I think. Just want to start playing to have fun, the guide is very effective, but not fun, lol. Thank you! I started Ironman almost 3 weeks ago, I put about 4 days of game time into it after oziris guide as close as possible without losing my mind. I find myself missing steps in it or accidentally doing things out of order. Does anyone here follow the guide/follow the guide and have any advice/changes to the guide that can help me? I find some things to be a little bad, nothing serious. I am currently fishing in the village of Shiloh in section 1.2 for reference. If you have any tips or differences that work best, please let me know! I feel like I haven't gotten that far beyond all the hours of playback I put in. RSN: Chug Juice If you want to see my current stats. Page 2 22 comments 2i.redd.it/2mcm6b page...
