

General Memetics News July 2023

Dear Edgeworker,

If the interactions between human beings and Gaia are not making sense to you, it could be because you are already living in a different gameworld than those around you.

The difficulty in this is that the other human beings around you might not yet know how to participate in the gameworld you prefer. But this is not the biggest obstacle.

We have been discovering a little-acknowledged key to bringing new Archan Gameworlds to life and welcoming explorers who would like to try something new. The key is Authority.

If you do not have the Authority to express new behaviors or make new offers, then how can you get permission to be different?

It is not likely that those who are empowered by existing systems will grant you Authority to reinvent their gameworlds. If they try, it would be disloyalty, heresy, or treason.

The hidden key is for you to grant yourself Authority for taking new actions.

You have been trained to beg for Authority through being acknowledged by an external source, when all the while the only true source for new Authority is yourself.

We are telling you this because once you have granted yourself Authority, for example, to Cavitate, Contextualize, Inhabit and Navigate new Archan Gameworlds, your Authority can only become Agency through you learning new skills.

So when Anne-Chloé and Vera and Clinton open the doors to the Bridge-House Training Center Bridge-House next year, it is NOT about certifying you with Authority. You will receive no diploma to hang on your wall that others can look at to think that you have been certified in your new skills.

No! The Bridge-House Training Center is a Dojo for practicing Bridge-House gameworld-building skills. By the time you bulge like Arnold Schwarzenegger with your new capabilities, you will reflexively generate new Bridge-Houses wherever you go. They will leak out of you automatically from an overflowing of skills. You will be like a torch strolling through a dry field of grass, sparking new revolutions with every step.

But it won't be because you are certified. It will be because you can't help causing Archan Gameworlds to come to life!

Now, this excites us!

Love, Clinton & Anne-Chloé, and the General Memetics Team

Latest SPARK

SPARK 241: Authority precedes Agency

Agency is your practical ability to cause real things to occur. With Agency you can reinvent circumstances, Notice extraordinary Possibility, give birth to startling originalities, stay on your Path even without a map or a trail, keep promises, step sideways through Doorways into Archetypal Spaces, Cavitate, Contextualize, Inhabit and Navigate new Gameworlds, communicate what has never been communicated before, transform breakdowns, and fail profitably. The ways Agency can manifest is endless, but so is the list of ways you might try to avoid unleashing your own Agency...

Info & Registration

Do you know anyone who is struggling to survive? Do they have the time to be happy? Do they have the luxury of choosing what to explore next? No. They can only do whatever puts food on the table, clothes on their back, and a roof over their head. Life is a struggle.

Do you think this is the life you want to create for yourself? But what if you cannot figure out anything else to create? Perhaps you think that a life already exists somewhere in the world that would make you happy? But is this true?

You are unique. No life that someone else creates will be a perfect fit for you.

Then where is the life for you?

Perhaps you do not live your life yet because you did not create your life yet.

Perhaps you did not create a life because you don't know how.

What if you have the opportunity? This WorkTalk gives you a chance to be clear about what you want to discover in life, and tools for creating that life.

From polluted rivers and carbon-filled skies, to kids on anti-depressants and wars raging in our backyards, we, human beings, find ourselves in a dire situation.

Buckminster Fuller said: "You never change things by fighting the existing reality. To change something, build a new model that makes the existing model obsolete." Except the existing models are already obsolete. What is needed now is to make the old models irrelevant.

If you feel the pain of the current reality and have a clear vision of what else is possible, what you might be missing are the tools, processes, and initiations to bridge the gap. This is where Possibility Management comes in. Possibility Management is thoughtware for Archiarchy, the culture that comes after Matriarchy and Patriarchy have run their course. It is obvious that this time is nigh!

Expand The Box Training dares to answer the question: 'How do you build new models that make the old ones irrelevant?'
