

Book Buddy Media offers highly professional and affordable audio production services.

New to the audio market?

Book Buddy media can help get your program off the ground with award-winning audio and free support in setting up your Audible distribution.

Book Buddy has curated an incredibly diverse network of talented voice actors who offer wide-ranging talents (including experience with Christian audio). Their project managers, actors, sound engineers, and proofers will work with you to ensure that your audiobook is brought to life and has been delivered ready to sell—optimized for Audible and other resellers.

Short-staffed?

Book Buddy is also a provider of key production services including content development, cover-design, layout, illustrations, graphic novels, translation, metadata, copyediting, proofing, and more. Whatever stage of the production process you are in—initial idea, outline, or fully written manuscript—BBM can help get your content to market.

Book Buddy Media is a PCPA Partner offering these special discounts to PCPA Member Publishing Companies:

- Children’s 0-5000 words - $25 per title project set up and casting fee + $.11 per word (Min. $50 per title)
- Adult - $325 per finished hour + $150 per project setup and casting fee
- The first PCPA publisher to sign on to produce an audiobook with BBM will get a $250 credit toward the project (not to exceed 50% of the project total).

Contact Book Buddy Media to learn more about how their services can help you!

Contact Brett Hodus, President, brett@bookbuddymedia.com and copy Sam Rhodes, Audio Director at sam@bookbuddymedia.com