

I'm not robot

Continue

Wikipedia list article This article has some issues. Please help raise or discuss this issue on the talk page. (Learn how and when to delete this template message)

This article requires additional citations for verification. Please help improve this article by adding citations to trusted sources. Unwarranted material can be challenged and removed. Find sources: Monster List, Inc. characters – news · newspaper · book · undergraduate · JSTOR (June 2013) (Learn how and when to delete this template message) This article describes works or elements of fiction in style especially in the universe. Please help rewrite to explain fiction more clearly and provide a non-fiction perspective. (June 2013) (Learn how and when to delete this template message) This article may have too many links to other articles, and may require cleaning to meet Wikipedia's quality standards. As per Wikipedia style guidelines, please remove duplicate links, and any links that are not relevant to the context. (June 2019) (Learn how and when to delete this template message) (Learn how and when to delete this template message) This is a list of characters from the Pixar Monsters, Inc. media franchise, including the 2001 film Monsters, Inc. and the 2013 film Monsters University, and the Disney+ series Monsters at Work. Set the monster character to be in the city of Monstropolis. According to the bonus DVD feature, Monstropolis was founded after all the monsters that once lived with humans were chased from the mainland and eventually moved to an island in the unknown world where they have lived ever since. The only way for them to enter a human-inhabited area is through a closet door. Monsters Company, Inc. provides Monstropolis with the power of the screams of human children who have been feared by monsters working in Monsters, Inc. so-called scarers. There are also companies that rival Monsters, Inc. such as Fear Co. and Scream Industries. The city also provides a university where monsters can learn to scare, the most prominent in the storyline is Monsters University for its outstanding Scare Program. One of its rivals is a college called Fear Tech. Appearing in both Sulley James P. Sullivan or Sulley films (voiced by John Goodman in the film series, Brian Cummings in the Monsters, Inc. video games, Joel McCrary in Disney Infinity and Disney Infinity 3.0, Christopher Swindle in Kingdom Hearts III) is a tall blue furry giant with horns, purple spots, razor sharp claws on his hands, hairy claws for feet, tails like theropods , spikes flowing on his back and fangs like sharks. Although she excels at scaring children, she is kind, thoughtful and affects a relaxed personality and At the beginning of the film, he was The Best Scarer for several months running. Monsters University describes Sulley's college age a talented but lazy student whose father Bill has made a name for himself as an adept Scarer. He and Mike start out as main rivals in their introductory scare class, but eventually form a friendship that lasts even beyond their expulsion from university. Mike Wazowski Michael Mike Wazowski (voiced by Billy Crystal in the film series, Carlos Alazraqui in video games, Merchandise, attractions and advertisements, Noah Johnston as his younger self at Monsters University), is a one-eyed green monster with a round body, two small horns and four fingers and three toes, each with claws. In Monsters, Inc. and Monsters University, Mike is described as a proud monster. Mike had a lonely childhood and struggled to make friends. On a class field trip to Monsters, Inc., Mike is inspired to be professionally scary, but other students make fun of him because he's perceived as uns calm. Even so, Mike was accepted into Monsters University's scare program, where he was introduced to James P. Sullivan in scare 101 class. Mike initially disliked Sulley because of his arrogance and poor work ethic. This dislike escalated into a major disturbance made in the classroom that resulted in Mike and Sulley being kicked out of the scare program. Mike then made a deal with the dean of the school to re-enroll in the program on the condition that he win the Games. Sulley joins Mike, despite Mike's protests. Mike and Sulley join the Oozma Kappa fraternity at Monsters University to qualify for the Games. Mike and Sulley begin to build friendships as they compete together. During the last show, Sulley cheated, and Mike and Sulley were kicked out of school. After being expelled, the two were offered jobs as workers in the mailroom of Monsters, Inc. They advance through the ranks until Sully is a scarer and Mike is his assistant. In Monsters, Inc., Mike runs Sulley station on the scare floor and they are close friends and roommates. Mike is currently dating Celia Mae. In addition, Mike helps Sulley on his mission to save Boo. Mike is portrayed as a comedian in Tomorrowland at the Magic Kingdom attraction Walt Disney World Resort, Monsters, Inc. Laugh Floor. Mike is known not only for his humor, but also his wit. He has made appearances in other Pixar films, such as Finding Nemo, Cars, WALL-E, and Toy Story 3. [1] Randall Boggs Randall Boggs (voiced by Steve Buscemi in the film series, Peter Kelamis in the Disney Infinity video game series, J.P. Manoux in video games and Kingdom Hearts III) is a purple monster, like an eight-legged chameleon with the ability to change skin color and blend in with He is very flexible, nimble and is an excellent climber. He is Sulley's arch enemy and Mike's arch rival and former best friend. In Monsters, Inc., he competed for a position as a scream collector over the area, that is, to encourage work. Randall managed to win the top spot for a few seconds until Sulley returned from a sleeper party, thus winning it back. They are also competing for the All-Time Scare Record. Randall builds and operates a large vacuum-like machine known as Scream Extractor and secretly employs Watermoose as his crime partner to kidnap human children to extract their screams to fight an energy crisis. One night, Randall leaves the door activated on the Scare Floor, when he does a little frying pan late at night, and a little girl (later nicknamed Boo) wanders around. Randall made several attempts to get information from Sulley and Mike where the boy was and, at one point, accidentally kidnapped Mike. He is soon revealed to be dealing with Watermoose, who drove Sulley and Mike to the Himalayas on Randall's orders. Before they can extract the screams from him, Sulley returns and destroys the machine, saving Boo. After a long chase through millions of doors at the factory door storage facility, Boo finally conquers his fear of Randall and buys Sulley enough time to defeat him. Afterwards, Randall is forcibly exiled into the human world and ends up in a mobile home where residents beat him senselessly, thinking he is a crocodile. Sulley and Mike then smash the door to prevent Randall's return. Later, Watermoose is exposed and arrested for his involvement in Randall's plan while Mushroom reforms. In the Monsters University proquel, Randall enrolls at the same time as Mike and the two end up as friends and roommates. She was insecure and shy at first, having trouble controlling her camouflage skills, but was a model bookworm. When Randall was accepted to Roar Omega Roar, the top fraternity at the university, he quickly left Mike to maintain his position with the fraternity. She slowly became more ambitious and confident, and eventually became less empathized and more self-centered. After an embarrassing failure at the Scare Games to Sulley, the voiced Randall vows for himself to never be defeated by Sulley again, thus starting their unfortunate conflict in Monsters, Inc. Roz Roz (voiced by Bob Peterson) is a snail-like monster who is a key master and administrator of Scare Floor F. Towards the end of the film, she is embarrased to be number one of the CDA, having done an undercover job of investigating the company and exposing the Randall and Watermoose schemes. He also made surprise appearances in three outtak films: when Boo was in the toilet cubicle with Sulley, the CDA shaved and showered George Sanderson, and as Sulley proved to Boo There's no one behind the closet door. He appeared briefly near the end of the prequel as a member of the CDA squad that responded to the break-in at the Door Lab. Although she wears full-body protective clothing that covers her face, her shape and voice give Credentials. CDA The CDA (short for Child Detection Agency and voiced by Rodger Bumpass, Bill Farmer, Pete Doctor, Lee Unkrich, David Silverman and Teddy Newton) is an assortment of different monsters in hazmat suits whose main job is to respond to any reported contact incidents between monsters and children or their belongings, as it is believed that human objects are poisonous. They isolate and destroy any items that are inadvertently brought back into the monster world. Each monster comes into contact with a human object quickly and is forcibly decontaminated when it has a neck cone applied afterwards. They first appeared when George Sanderson got socks on him and they had to decontaminate him after the socks were destroyed. When Boo got into Monstropolis and showed up in HARRYhausen, the CDA eventually decontaminated the building and then disinfected the customer. They then found a bag containing Boo that Mike and Sulley left behind at the restaurant, which tracked them back to Monsters, Inc. where they ended up searching the building. In one moment, two CDA members asked Sulley for an autograph to give to Bethany, the daughter of agent 00002, who was mentioned. Henry J. Watermoose asked the CDA to cut the electricity to Boo's door as soon as it landed so that it contained Boo and arrested Mike and Sulley. Mike performs a diversion that involved throwing one of Boo's socks at one of the agents and then asking the other agent to go after him. This trick allowed Agent CDA to be present when Henry acknowledged his motives involving kidnapping children to guard Monster, Inc. stay alive. CDA agents arrest Watermoose when Mike and Sulley discover that Roz is the Number One of the CDA. During the credits, a CDA agent directs a monster to his seat during Mike and Sulley's play Put That Thing Back Where It Came From or So Help Me. At Monsters University, CDA is called when Mike and Sulley have entered a door leading to a human area. After Mike and Sulley returned to Monsters University, they were taken away by the CDA, Abominable Snowman The Abominable Snowman (voiced by John Ratzenberger) or Yeti, is a white-haired monster from Monstropolis that was banished to the Himalayas in the human world. He's good at making snow cones. He greets Sulley and Mike when Watermoose and Randall drive them to the Himalayas. While Abominable Snowman tries to make Mike and Sulley feel at home, he understands Sulley has to save Boo, and tells him about a Nepalese village at the foot of the mountain where they can regain access to the monster world. Despite everything, Abominable Snowman seems to have made the best of his fate and really seems to enjoy the human world. In credit to Cars, he as Abominable Snowplop. At Monsters University, he was shown to work as a mailroom supervisor in Monsters, Inc.. He warned Mike and Sulley Sulley to mess up a letter that is a crime punishable by being thrown out (which may hint at why he was banished). Appeared in Monsters, Inc. Boo Boo (voiced by Mary Gibbs) is a 2-year-old human girl who becomes a friend of Sulley and Mike. During Randall's secret late-night job on the Scare Floor, Boo goes into the factory and Sulley tries various attempts to put him back in, nothing works, so he ends up putting it in the backpack. When Sulley takes this with Mike in HARRYhausen, Boo comes out and scares the customer; The CDA must decontaminate the restaurant. While Mike and Sulley are at home, they discover that the girl is not toxic after all. Sulley quickly grew attached to the girl and named her Boo. The next day, they smuggle him into the factory disguised as the son of one of Sulley's relatives, and Mike tries to return him through his door. Randall tries to kidnap Boo, but kidnaps Mike by accident. Boo may not be afraid of Sulley, but when he is taken to the training room (which is a simulator that scares recruits during their training) after Mike and Sulley run away from Randall, he is finally spooked by Sulley's roar. When Mike and Sulley try to return Boo to his home, Mr. Watermoose exiles Mike and Sulley to the Himalayas. Sulley returns to the factory and rescues Boo from Randall's Scream Extractor (a large machine capable of extracting and collecting children's screams). During the chase through the large storage vault, Boo's laughter eventually causes all the doors to operate. Eventually, Boo gets scared of Randall and helps defeat him. Sulley and Mike can access Boo's door, but Mr. Watermoose and the CDA send him back to the Scare Floor. Mike distracts the CDA, while Sulley runs away with Boo and his door, though Watermoose follows after they accidentally get his attention. The undercover CDA leader is revealed to be Roz, and he allows Sulley and Mike five minutes to return Boo to his world. After Sulley and Mike return Boo to his room, the door is put through the crushing machine. Some time later, Mike takes Sulley aside revealing he has rebuilt Boo's door which requires only one more piece that Sulley has taken as a memento, affixed to his clipboard. Sulley inserts the last piece, reactivate the door and enters to find Boo there. Boo has had other cameo appearances in other Pixar films including Toy Story 3 and Toy Story 4. Monsters, Inc. Henry J. Watermoose III's employee Henry J. Watermoose III (voiced by James Coburn) is a humanoid crab-like monster/ five-eyed spider is the CEO of Monsters, Inc.. The company has been in the Watermoose family for 3 generations since he inherited the company from his father at the age of 142. Watermoose also previously had a mentoring relationship with Sulley. The monster wants to be the best ever. Watermoose was first seen where it recalls reminding Biles and other trainees (Dave, Chris and Horace) about the dangers of a human child entering Monstropolis after Thaddeus leaves the door open. He was impressed by Sulley's progress. However, Mr Watermoose was perplexed to learn that the upcoming energy crisis was escalating, as many children were desensitized and could not be scared by monsters, which might put the company on the verge of closing. When Sulley told Watermoose that he could get the company through an energy crisis, he told Sulley to notify the board. When Boo is finally found, Sulley and Mike tell Watermoose about Randall's plans. Watermoose promises to arrange the right things for them, but instead reveals that he and Randall are working together; Watermoose collaborates with Randall on a final plan to save the company by kidnapping human children to extract their screams. At that point, Watermoose exiles Sulley and Mike to the Himalayas, though he later regrets accepting Randall's plan. Unfortunately, Randall forces Watermoose to continue with the plan (though it is implied that Randall intends to then betray Watermoose). After Sulley and Mike manage to find their way back into the monster world, they rescue Boo, destroy Scream Extractor, defeat Randall, and trap him in the Everglades. Meanwhile, Watermoose has called on the CDA to arrest Sulley and Mike (trying to frame them as the criminals responsible for the incident) and arrest Boo. Sulley and Mike trick Watermoose into exposing Randall's plans to the CDA. With this incriminating evidence, the CDA arrested Watermoose. When she is dragged, Watermoose emphatically tells Sulley that she is destroying the company and that the energy crisis will only get worse for her before she is pulled out of the room. Watermoose was last seen loaded into a CDA van and taken to jail when Sulley became the new CEO of Monsters, Inc., proving Watermoose's theory wrong by changing the company's approach from scaremongering to laughter, allowing the company to gain enough power to end the energy crisis for good. It is alleged Watermoose regretted his corrupt actions and served Randall after hearing of the company's renewal. Despite not appearing in Monsters University's Prequel, Watermoose is seen in a photo at the end of the film shaking hands with Sulley and Mike as they are promoted to scare team. The Xenon processor, used in the Xbox 360, developed by Microsoft and IBM under the IBM chip program is code named Watermoose in honor of the character. [2] Celia Mae Celia Mae (voiced by Jennifer Tilly) is a one-eyed monster with hair and Like a snake for a leg. She works as a receptionist at Monsters, Inc. and is Mike Wazowski's girlfriend. When Mike dates Celia at HARRYhausen's, a sushi restaurant, Boo makes himself known as CDA CDA place and use the device that caused the energy dome to decontaminate HARRYhausen. Celia was one of the decontaminated monsters at the time, which then forced her and her snake hair to wear neck cones after surviving decontamination, much to her embarrassment; Mike did try to help him, but was stopped by Sulley. As a result, Celia is now angry at Mike and he confronts her the next day, and she accidentally slips into Mike's involvement in the incident the night before while scolding him, which Randall discovers. When Mike and Sulley are pursued by Randall, Celia angrily grabs Mike, threatening to break up with him if he doesn't tell her what's going on; although Mike states that they are trying to get Boo back to his room, Celia doesn't believe him at first until Boo appears over Sulley's shoulder, surprising him to release Mike. Celia, after overcoming her anger, diverts by announcing that Randall has broken the Scare Record. He is seen again at the end of the film, having fully recovered (where he is shown to no longer wear a neck cone) and makes amends with Mike, and tells him that a box full of magazines has just arrived. Both he and Mike were surprised to see that Mike had made a magazine cover. During the credits, Celia takes part in Mike and Sulley's play Put That Thing Back Where It Came From or So Help Me. Despite not appearing at Monsters University, Celia is seen in a photo in Mike's dressing room, where he posted a new photo of himself and Sulley on their first day as Tim Scarer, next to Celia near the end of the film. Jeffrey Fungus Jeffrey Fungus (voiced by Frank Oz) is Randall's three-eyed red-skinned assistant. Despite partnering with Mushroom, Randall seems upset by his antics and often abuses him and his boss around. Mushroom is also frightened by Randall's behavior and his involvement in a plot to kidnap human children and extract their screams by force, but feels blackmailed or too intimidated to confront Randall, and is thrilled that Mike and Sulley sabotage an evil conspiracy. When Randall tries to test the extraction machine on Mike, Sulley puts mushroom in the chair and saves Mike. The screaming machine made Mushroom almost unconscious and flushed him white, indicating that the machine was asphyxiated by his victim. In the end after Randall's defeat and Watermoose's arrest, Mushroom was forgiven for his involvement and is now happy to take on the job of making the children laugh to gather more power. Needleman and Smitty Needleman and Smitty (both voiced by Dan Gerson in the film, Stephen Stanton in Monsters at Work) are two monsters who work as maintenance and duty at Monsters, Inc. Both adorned Sulley and the land he went through. One of their jobs at Monsters, Inc. is operating a Door Door woodchipper-like devices that destroy the doors of children who are not afraid of monsters. In one of the film's results, Smitty accidentally summons Sullivan Solomon, while another outtake sees Door Shredder smash the door too quickly; then walked backstage with them holding on to it, almost destroying the equipment and props backstage. Scarers of Scare Floor F The Scarers of Scare Floor F is a co-worker at Monsters, Inc.. Apart from James P. Sullivan and Randall Boggs, among them are: Augustus Spike Jones - A red snail-like monster with many purple spikes that can be pulled on his back. In the episode Monsters University, it is shown that Spike has graduated from Fear Tech and is a former worker at Fear Co. Bob Peterson (voiced by Jack Angel) - A light blue dinosaur-like monster with detachable teeth. He's named after Bob Peterson. George Sanderson (voiced by Samuel Lord Black) - A one-horned furry monster who is good friends with Mike, Sulley, Lanky, and Claws. At Monsters University, he was a member of the Jaws Theta Chi fraternity. In Monsters, Inc., when George emerges from one of the doors with socks on him, his assistant Charlie looks at the socks and yells 23-19 that eventually calls the CDA to take care of the situation. After the socks were removed and destroyed, George was then shaved, showered, and applied a neck cone to him. It became a running joke, as when in the locker room, a toy Sulley hid in a nearby locker fell on George causing Charlie to scream 23-19 which caused the CDA to work on him again. When Charlie chooses the door to a house in the Himalayas, Sulley emerges from there and unwittingly places socks on him. Charlie screams 23-19, but this time, George pushes a sock in Charlie's mouth and kicks him out by throwing it through the door but he runs through the door and with George sees Watermoose inside the CDA van. Harley P. Gerson - An orange monster with just a big mouth and two legs. Harry Bud Luckey - A thin turquoise Octopus monster with long, hairy purple hair covering his face. Joe Ranft - Red velvet monster with big fists and three eyes. He was named after Joe Ranft. Nicholas Lanki Schmidt (voiced by Bob Bergen) - A monster with a small head and long arms and legs who are good friends with Pete Claws Ward and George Sanderson. When interviewed about kid-tastrophe, he claims Boo flew over him and used laser vision to blow up the car. Pete Claws Ward (voiced by Joe Ranft) - A blue crocodile-like monster with sharp, retractable claws and a terrible breath that befriends his assistant. While working at one door, she ran outside and told her assistant that the child He tried to scare almost touching her resulting in his assistant calling the door smasher making it the 58th door the company lost this week. He seems less scary than he is trying to make himself visible, visible, she looks distraught over her failed scare attempt and then cries during Mike's solo number in the play company. Ricky Plesuski - A green monster with a big mouth filled with sharp teeth, snail-like eyes, and eight legs. In monsters university episodes, it is shown that Ricky has graduated from Fear Tech and is a former worker at Fear Co. and Scream Industries. Josh Rivera (voiced by Lee Unkrich) - Tall and slender orange monster with six tentacles for arms and four shorter tentacles for legs. Theodore Ted Pauley (voiced by Katherine Ringgold) - A large purple monster of Gorilla-like stature and 16 removable eyes. In an outtake of the film, as scarers make their entrance to Scare Floor F, Sulley travels and falls, causing a domino effect in which all the other scarers fall as well. After everyone stumbled, a crew member peered his head out to clap the applause board upside down. Assistant Scarers of Floor F Betty (voiced by Teresa Ganzel) - The blue monster who is Rivera's assistant Charlie Proctor (voiced by Philip Proctor) - A light green monster with snail-like eyes and tentacles for the arm that is George Sanderson's assistant. He often panics whenever a human object will come into contact with George, leading to the last forcible decontamination by the CDA. Chuck (voiced by Danny Mann) - A pink frog-like monster with four arms and also helps Claws Ward. In the film, there are four varieties of Chuck including him. Stuart - A turquoise monster with crab-like legs and stalks with one eye that helps Harley Gerson. Frank (voiced by Paul Eiding) - A one-eyed, one-eyed green monster with no visible mouth as well as ruff feathers around its stalks. He also helped Bob Peterson. Kevin - The five-eyed snail who helped Ted Pauley. Marge (voiced by Mickie McGowan) - A star-like monster and Schmidt's assistant. Glenn - A slim light green monster with about 4 or 5 feet that helps Joe J.J. Ranft. Eric - A red five-eyed snail monster and helps Luckey's hairy head. Waxford - A five-eyed monster with tentacles for the legs who is Spike's assistant. He is mentioned by Mike as having his eyes shifted and is then seen with Randall asking if he knows anything about Boo. Zack - A three-eyed pistachio-like monster who helps Ricky. Thaddeus Bile Thaddeus Bile (voiced by Jeff Pidgeon) is a Scarer Trainee also called Pheleg. He is seen at the beginning of the film messing up his training by leaving the door open as well as being scared by a simulated child (voiced by Lisa Raggio) causing him to slip on a football and fall on some jacks. At the end of the film, he began working on Scare Floor F where he had successfully made a laugh by slipping on a football and falling on a few more jacks. Flint Flint (voiced by Bonnie Hunt) is an employee at Monsters, Inc. who manages to manage The test that monsters have to pass to become scarers. Flint is a tall, red and black monster with dark red fins attached to his eyes, has long, sharp claws, wears a black jacket and a long snake-like tail. Flint's assistant Dave is a yellow three-eyed monster with horns over his head and two eyebrows because of his Picasso-like face. Chris is a four-armed green monster with eyes on the stalk. Horace is a pink four-armed monster, a frog, like a frog. Jerry Slugworth Jerry Slugworth (voiced by Steve Susskind) is a red monster with seven fingers who works as a floor manager for Scare Floor F. Tony Tony (voiced by Guido Quaroni) is a tall, slender orange monster with a mustache, four tentacles for arms and five shorter tentacles for legs. He is a grocer who works at Tony's Grossery and was first seen telling Mike and Sulley that someone would break the All-Scare Record and throw them blood oranges while wishing them the best of luck. Ted Ted is the biggest monster in the movie; he is so big, only his elephant-like legs, covered with large, coarse brown scales, are displayed at all. He also seems to be the only monster who can't talk, instead crowing like a rooster. He is shown at a crossroads waiting for the light to change with Mike and Sulley. Sulley yelled Good Morning to him, he crowed back, then the light turned green, and Ted stumped across the street, causing an earthquake with every step. Appearing on the staff of Monsters University Dean Abigail Hardscrabble Dean Abigail Hardscrabble (voiced by Helen Mirren[3]) is the strict dean of Monsters University. He is a red dragon-like monster with centipe-de-like legs and red bat wings. He was modeled after a type of centipede called Scolopendra gigantea, also known as the giant centipede of Amazon. When Dean Hardscrabble attended Monsters University in his youth, he was a member of the Eta Hiss Hiss society and was the founder and four consecutive champion of the Scare Games. He first appeared where he flew to Professor Derek Knight's class at the beginning of the first day. He then also appeared during the Scare Exam at the end of the semester which helped to remove the most unworthy scars from the University's School of Scaring. Mike is expelled because Hardscrabble considers him not scary, and Sulley is expelled when he does the wrong fear due to lack of learning and preparation. Mike then learns that the only way to get back into the scare program is to compete in scare games with a rejected monster fraternity called Oozma Kappa. As a result, Mike made with Dean Hardscrabble that if Oozma Kappa wins the Games, they will be restored back to the scare program. Otherwise, if they lose, Mike has to leave school. Sensing this opportunity, Sulley offered to join Oozma Kappa allowing the team to gain entry. During the Scare Games, Dean Hardscrabble secretly watches Mike and Sulley compete from afar, sober and hoping that they will both fail. For the toxicity challenge after Oozma Kappa came in last place, Hardscrabble declared to Mike that only a miracle could save him from expulsion. Coincidentally before he could even complete his punishment, one miracle actually occurred when Brock Pearson announced that Jaws Theta Chi was disqualified for using an illegal protective sting ointment during the Toxicity challenge, which put Oozma Kappa back into competition, although he still believed that they would eventually lose. Dean Hardscrabble then watches over Oozma Kappa during the remaining challenges. But after Oozma Kappa won the Games when they defeated roar Omega Roar in the final round to scare a simulator, Sulley confessed to Hardscrabble that he cheated by setting Mike's simulator level to be easy just to make Oozma Kappa win because of Mike's inability to scare. An angry hardscrabble orders him to leave campus because of his cheating when suddenly, he is warned that Mike secretly sneaks into the lab door to prove that he is a scarier man, prompting Sulley to go there to save his friend, despite Harscrabble's warnings. Dean Hardscrabble then closes the door in question, leading to a cabin at a campsite in a park until authorities arrive, but Mike and Sulley manage to escape again by scaring off some human adults in the form of a team of park rangers. Mike's break-in led to him being kicked out of Monsters University along with Sulley for tearing up the game's scores, but Hardscrabble sadly let her go. While considered a major offense for his school, they ended up surprising him (something no one had ever done). Dean Hardscrabble had the rest of Oozma Kappa signed up to the Scare Program, admitting to Sulley and Mike that he was impressed with their performance at the Games. Professor Derek Knight Professor Derek Knight (voiced by Alfred Molina[4]) is a dinosaur-like monster who teaches SCARE 101: Introduction to Scaremongering at the School of Scaring. He often expels the least worthy students so that the best of the best can turn into Scarers. Professor Knight also proved to be a fan of Bill Sullivan, Sulley's father. When she is first seen during an exam that will determine who will take part in the Scare School, Dean Abigail Hardscrabble helps her where she nurtures Mike for not being scary and Sully for doing the wrong thing. Professor Knight is then seen together Hardscrabble when Sully admits that he installed Mike's scare simulator during the last Scare Games event. During his credits, he has a card that says that he works at Fear. Co. Professor William Brandywine Professor William Brandywine is a round monster with yellow feathers whose eyes are invisible. He works at Monsters University's School of where he taught Scream Canister Designs to his students. Don Carlton's character model was used to create Professor Brandywine. Librarian Librarian Librarian (voiced by Marcia Wallace) is an old lady monster working in the library at Monsters University. He is a large snail-headed teacher with six terrible tentacles for feet and ubans. Librarians engage in the Avoid Parents challenge of Scare Games where the Librarian's reaction to noise is made to mimic the dangers of parents and how Scarer should get along without getting caught by one. Every team caught by the Librarian is expelled from the library and eliminated from the competition. That's what happened to Slugma Slugma Kappa when they were caught by librarians. Kappa's Oozma group succumbed to silence after Sulley accidentally rolled up the stairs and they embarked on a noisy display to distract and confuse librarians to get their flag. University student Oozma Kappa student Oozma Kappa (OK, suggestive of OK) is one of six fraternities at Monsters University. It is mostly filled with a kind-hearted mismatch. In addition to protagonists Mike and Sulley, among the members of Oozma Kappa are: Don Carlton (voiced by Joel Murray[5]) – Don Carlton is a red-skinned adult monster with bat-like mustache and octopus-like tentacles for a weapon who returns to Monsters University to learn how to use a computer and might consider trying to scare. He is President Oozma Kappa. Don is then engaged to Scott Squishy Squibbles' mother, Sherri. During the credits, it is shown that Don has earned a job as a scarer at Monsters, Inc., under the moniker Dangerous Don Carlton. Art (voiced by Charlie Day[5]) - Art is a purple furry monster with an arch shape and questionable background (in a scene he reveals that he was in prison before). It is shown during his credits that he got a job as a scarer in Monsters, Inc.. Scott Squishy Squibbles (voiced by Peter Sohn[5][6]) - Scott Squibbles is a five-eyed jelly monster whose mother owns a fraternity house. It is shown during his credits that he got a job as a scarer in Monsters, Inc., under the moniker "Scott Scary Squibbles". Terri and Terry Perry (voiced by Sean Hayes[6] and Dave Foley[5]) – Terri and Terry are two-headed monsters with one eye on each head, four arms, and tentacles for the legs. Terri's head has one horn while Terry's head has two horns. Terri, a dance major, is a very optimistic one of the two while Terry, an English major, is more morose but has a fondness for close-up magic. They are personalities very different wise but they work well together as shown in Scare Games. It is shown during the credits that they got a job as a scarer in Monsters, Inc., under the moniker Terrifying Terry and Terri Perry. Students of Roar Omega Roar Roar Omega Roar (ROR, suggestive roar) is one of the fraternity at Monsters University. It consists of the best of the best because they are the smartest, most skilled, and scariest monsters at Monsters University. In addition to Randall, among the members of the Roar Omega Roar are: Johnny J. The Jaw Worthington III (voiced by Nathan Fillion[7]) – Johnny J. Worthington III is a confident President of Roar Omega Roar who is a big disruptor for Mike Wazowski, also a residual ROM. He competed against Mike in the last round of the Scare Games. During the credits, it is shown that Johnny got a job as Scarer in Fear Co. Chet The Claw Alexander (voiced by Bobby Moynihan[7]) - Chet Alexander is a one-eyed lispng crab monster who serves as Vice

Wikipedia list article This article has some issues. Please help raise or discuss this issue on the talk page. (Learn how and when to delete this template message) This article requires additional citations for verification. Please help improve this article by adding citations to trusted sources. Unwarranted material can be challenged and removed. Find sources: Monster List, Inc. characters – news · newspaper · book · undergraduate · JSTOR (June 2013) (Learn how and when to delete this template message) This article describes works or elements of fiction in style especially in the universe. Please help rewrite to explain fiction more clearly and provide a non-fiction perspective. (June 2013) (Learn how and when to delete this template message) This article may have too many links to other articles, and may require cleaning to meet Wikipedia's quality standards. As per Wikipedia style guidelines, please remove duplicate links, and any links that are not relevant to the context. (June 2019) (Learn how and when to delete this template message) (Learn how and when to delete this template message) This is a list of characters from the Pixar Monsters, Inc. media franchise, including the 2001 film Monsters, Inc. and the 2013 film Monsters University, and the Disney+ series Monsters at Work. Set the monster character to be in the city of Monstropolis. According to the bonus DVD feature, Monstropolis was founded after all the monsters that once lived with humans were chased from the mainland and eventually moved to an island in the unknown world where they have lived ever since. The only way for them to enter a human-inhabited area is through a closet door. Monsters Company, Inc. provides Monstropolis with the power of the screams of human children who have been feared by monsters working in Monsters, Inc. so-called scarers. There are also companies that rival Monsters, Inc. such as Fear Co. and Scream Industries. The city also provides a university where monsters can learn to scare, the most prominent in the storyline is Monsters University for its outstanding Scare Program. One of its rivals is a college called Fear Tech. Appearing in both Sulley James P. Sullivan or Sulley films (voiced by John Goodman in the film series, Brian Cummings in the Monsters, Inc. video games, Joel McCrary in Disney Infinity and Disney Infinity 3.0, Christopher Swindle in Kingdom Hearts III) is a tall blue furry giant with horns, purple spots, razor sharp claws on his hands, hairy claws for feet, tails like theropods , spikes flowing on his back and fangs like sharks. Although she excels at scaring children, she is kind, thoughtful and affects a relaxed personality and At the beginning of the film, he was The Best Scarer for several months running. Monsters University describes Sulley's college age a talented but lazy student whose father Bill has made a name for himself as an adept Scarer. He and Mike start out as main rivals in their introductory scare class, but eventually form a friendship that lasts even beyond their expulsion from university. Mike Wazowski Michael Mike Wazowski (voiced by Billy Crystal in the film series, Carlos Alazraqui in video games, Merchandise, attractions and advertisements, Noah Johnston as his younger self at Monsters University), is a one-eyed green monster with a round body, two small horns and four fingers and three toes, each with claws. In Monsters, Inc. and Monsters University, Mike is described as a proud monster. Mike had a lonely childhood and struggled to make friends. On a class field trip to Monsters, Inc., Mike is inspired to be professionally scary, but other students make fun of him because he's perceived as uns calm. Even so, Mike was accepted into Monsters University's scare program, where he was introduced to James P. Sullivan in scare 101 class. Mike initially disliked Sulley because of his arrogance and poor work ethic. This dislike escalated into a major disturbance made in the classroom that resulted in Mike and Sulley being kicked out of the scare program. Mike then made a deal with the dean of the school to re-enroll in the program on the condition that he win the Games. Sulley joins Mike, despite Mike's protests. Mike and Sulley join the Oozma Kappa fraternity at Monsters University to qualify for the Games. Mike and Sulley begin to build friendships as they compete together. During the last show, Sulley cheated, and Mike and Sulley were kicked out of school. After being expelled, the two were offered jobs as workers in the mailroom of Monsters, Inc. They advance through the ranks until Sully is a scarer and Mike is his assistant. In Monsters, Inc., Mike runs Sulley station on the scare floor and they are close friends and roommates. Mike is currently dating Celia Mae. In addition, Mike helps Sulley on his mission to save Boo. Mike is portrayed as a comedian in Tomorrowland at the Magic Kingdom attraction Walt Disney World Resort, Monsters, Inc. Laugh Floor. Mike is known not only for his humor, but also his wit. He has made appearances in other Pixar films, such as Finding Nemo, Cars, WALL-E, and Toy Story 3. [1] Randall Boggs Randall Boggs (voiced by Steve Buscemi in the film series, Peter Kelamis in the Disney Infinity video game series, J.P. Manoux in video games and Kingdom Hearts III) is a purple monster, like an eight-legged chameleon with the ability to change skin color and blend in with He is very flexible, nimble and is an excellent climber. He is Sulley's arch enemy and Mike's arch rival and former best friend. In Monsters, Inc., he competed for a position as a scream collector over the area, that is, to encourage work. Randall managed to win the top spot for a few seconds until Sulley returned from a sleeper party, thus winning it back. They are also competing for the All-Time Scare Record. Randall builds and operates a large vacuum-like machine known as Scream Extractor and secretly employs Watermoose as his crime partner to kidnap human children to extract their screams to fight an energy crisis. One night, Randall leaves the door activated on the Scare Floor, when he does a little frying pan late at night, and a little girl (later nicknamed Boo) wanders around. Randall made several attempts to get information from Sulley and Mike where the boy was and, at one point, accidentally kidnapped Mike. He is soon revealed to be dealing with Watermoose, who drove Sulley and Mike to the Himalayas on Randall's orders. Before they can extract the screams from him, Sulley returns and destroys the machine, saving Boo. After a long chase through millions of doors at the factory door storage facility, Boo finally conquers his fear of Randall and buys Sulley enough time to defeat him. Afterwards, Randall is forcibly exiled into the human world and ends up in a mobile home where residents beat him senselessly, thinking he is a crocodile. Sulley and Mike then smash the door to prevent Randall's return. Later, Watermoose is exposed and arrested for his involvement in Randall's plan while Mushroom reforms. In the Monsters University proquel, Randall enrolls at the same time as Mike and the two end up as friends and roommates. She was insecure and shy at first, having trouble controlling her camouflage skills, but was a model bookworm. When Randall was accepted to Roar Omega Roar, the top fraternity at the university, he quickly left Mike to maintain his position with the fraternity. She slowly became more ambitious and confident, and eventually became less empathized and more self-centered. After an embarrassing failure at the Scare Games to Sulley, the voiced Randall vows for himself to never be defeated by Sulley again, thus starting their unfortunate conflict in Monsters, Inc. Roz Roz (voiced by Bob Peterson) is a snail-like monster who is a key master and administrator of Scare Floor F. Towards the end of the film, she is embarrased to be number one of the CDA, having done an undercover job of investigating the company and exposing the Randall and Watermoose schemes. He also made surprise appearances in three outtak films: when Boo was in the toilet cubicle with Sulley, the CDA shaved and showered George Sanderson, and as Sulley proved to Boo There's no one behind the closet door. He appeared briefly near the end of the prequel as a member of the CDA squad that responded to the break-in at the Door Lab. Although she wears full-body protective clothing that covers her face, her shape and voice give Credentials. CDA The CDA (short for Child Detection Agency and voiced by Rodger Bumpass, Bill Farmer, Pete Doctor, Lee Unkrich, David Silverman and Teddy Newton) is an assortment of different monsters in hazmat suits whose main job is to respond to any reported contact incidents between monsters and children or their belongings, as it is believed that human objects are poisonous. They isolate and destroy any items that are inadvertently brought back into the monster world. Each monster comes into contact with a human object quickly and is forcibly decontaminated when it has a neck cone applied afterwards. They first appeared when George Sanderson got socks on him and they had to decontaminate him after the socks were destroyed. When Boo got into Monstropolis and showed up in HARRYhausen, the CDA eventually decontaminated the building and then disinfected the customer. They then found a bag containing Boo that Mike and Sulley left behind at the restaurant, which tracked them back to Monsters, Inc. where they ended up searching the building. In one moment, two CDA members asked Sulley for an autograph to give to Bethany, the daughter of agent 00002, who was mentioned. Henry J. Watermoose asked the CDA to cut the electricity to Boo's door as soon as it landed so that it contained Boo and arrested Mike and Sulley. Mike performs a diversion that involved throwing one of Boo's socks at one of the agents and then asking the other agent to go after him. This trick allowed Agent CDA to be present when Henry acknowledged his motives involving kidnapping children to guard Monster, Inc. stay alive. CDA agents arrest Watermoose when Mike and Sulley discover that Roz is the Number One of the CDA. During the credits, a CDA agent directs a monster to his seat during Mike and Sulley's play Put That Thing Back Where It Came From or So Help Me. At Monsters University, CDA is called when Mike and Sulley have entered a door leading to a human area. After Mike and Sulley returned to Monsters University, they were taken away by the CDA, Abominable Snowman The Abominable Snowman (voiced by John Ratzenberger) or Yeti, is a white-haired monster from Monstropolis that was banished to the Himalayas in the human world. He's good at making snow cones. He greets Sulley and Mike when Watermoose and Randall drive them to the Himalayas. While Abominable Snowman tries to make Mike and Sulley feel at home, he understands Sulley has to save Boo, and tells him about a Nepalese village at the foot of the mountain where they can regain access to the monster world. Despite everything, Abominable Snowman seems to have made the best of his fate and really seems to enjoy the human world. In credit to Cars, he as Abominable Snowplop. At Monsters University, he was shown to work as a mailroom supervisor in Monsters, Inc.. He warned Mike and Sulley Sulley to mess up a letter that is a crime punishable by being thrown out (which may hint at why he was banished). Appeared in Monsters, Inc. Boo Boo (voiced by Mary Gibbs) is a 2-year-old human girl who becomes a friend of Sulley and Mike. During Randall's secret late-night job on the Scare Floor, Boo goes into the factory and Sulley tries various attempts to put him back in, nothing works, so he ends up putting it in the backpack. When Sulley takes this with Mike in HARRYhausen, Boo comes out and scares the customer; The CDA must decontaminate the restaurant. While Mike and Sulley are at home, they discover that the girl is not toxic after all. Sulley quickly grew attached to the girl and named her Boo. The next day, they smuggle him into the factory disguised as the son of one of Sulley's relatives, and Mike tries to return him through his door. Randall tries to kidnap Boo, but kidnaps Mike by accident. Boo may not be afraid of Sulley, but when he is taken to the training room (which is a simulator that scares recruits during their training) after Mike and Sulley run away from Randall, he is finally spooked by Sulley's roar. When Mike and Sulley try to return Boo to his home, Mr. Watermoose exiles Mike and Sulley to the Himalayas. Sulley returns to the factory and rescues Boo from Randall's Scream Extractor (a large machine capable of extracting and collecting children's screams). During the chase through the large storage vault, Boo's laughter eventually causes all the doors to operate. Eventually, Boo gets scared of Randall and helps defeat him. Sulley and Mike can access Boo's door, but Mr. Watermoose and the CDA send him back to the Scare Floor. Mike distracts the CDA, while Sulley runs away with Boo and his door, though Watermoose follows after they accidentally get his attention. The undercover CDA leader is revealed to be Roz, and he allows Sulley and Mike five minutes to return Boo to his world. After Sulley and Mike return Boo to his room, the door is put through the crushing machine. Some time later, Mike takes Sulley aside revealing he has rebuilt Boo's door which requires only one more piece that Sulley has taken as a memento, affixed to his clipboard. Sulley inserts the last piece, reactivate the door and enters to find Boo there. Boo has had other cameo appearances in other Pixar films including Toy Story 3 and Toy Story 4. Monsters, Inc. Henry J. Watermoose III's employee Henry J. Watermoose III (voiced by James Coburn) is a humanoid crab-like monster/ five-eyed spider is the CEO of Monsters, Inc.. The company has been in the Watermoose family for 3 generations since he inherited the company from his father at the age of 142. Watermoose also previously had a mentoring relationship with Sulley. The monster wants to be the best ever. Watermoose was first seen where it recalls reminding Biles and other trainees (Dave, Chris and Horace) about the dangers of a human child entering Monstropolis after Thaddeus leaves the door open. He was impressed by Sulley's progress. However, Mr Watermoose was perplexed to learn that the upcoming energy crisis was escalating, as many children were desensitized and could not be scared by monsters, which might put the company on the verge of closing. When Sulley told Watermoose that he could get the company through an energy crisis, he told Sulley to notify the board. When Boo is finally found, Sulley and Mike tell Watermoose about Randall's plans. Watermoose promises to arrange the right things for them, but instead reveals that he and Randall are working together; Watermoose collaborates with Randall on a final plan to save the company by kidnapping human children to extract their screams. At that point, Watermoose exiles Sulley and Mike to the Himalayas, though he later regrets accepting Randall's plan. Unfortunately, Randall forces Watermoose to continue with the plan (though it is implied that Randall intends to then betray Watermoose). After Sulley and Mike manage to find their way back into the monster world, they rescue Boo, destroy Scream Extractor, defeat Randall, and trap him in the Everglades. Meanwhile, Watermoose has called on the CDA to arrest Sulley and Mike (trying to frame them as the criminals responsible for the incident) and arrest Boo. Sulley and Mike trick Watermoose into exposing Randall's plans to the CDA. With this incriminating evidence, the CDA arrested Watermoose. When she is dragged, Watermoose emphatically tells Sulley that she is destroying the company and that the energy crisis will only get worse for her before she is pulled out of the room. Watermoose was last seen loaded into a CDA van and taken to jail when Sulley became the new CEO of Monsters, Inc., proving Watermoose's theory wrong by changing the company's approach from scaremongering to laughter, allowing the company to gain enough power to end the energy crisis for good. It is alleged Watermoose regretted his corrupt actions and served Randall after hearing of the company's renewal. Despite not appearing in Monsters University's Prequel, Watermoose is seen in a photo at the end of the film shaking hands with Sulley and Mike as they are promoted to scare team. The Xenon processor, used in the Xbox 360, developed by Microsoft and IBM under the IBM chip program is code named Watermoose in honor of the character. [2] Celia Mae Celia Mae (voiced by Jennifer Tilly) is a one-eyed monster with hair and Like a snake for a leg. She works as a receptionist at Monsters, Inc. and is Mike Wazowski's girlfriend. When Mike dates Celia at HARRYhausen's, a sushi restaurant, Boo makes himself known as CDA CDA place and use the device that caused the energy dome to decontaminate HARRYhausen. Celia was one of the decontaminated monsters at the time, which then forced her and her snake hair to wear neck cones after surviving decontamination, much to her embarrassment; Mike did try to help him, but was stopped by Sulley. As a result, Celia is now angry at Mike and he confronts her the next day, and she accidentally slips into Mike's involvement in the incident the night before while scolding him, which Randall discovers. When Mike and Sulley are pursued by Randall, Celia angrily grabs Mike, threatening to break up with him if he doesn't tell her what's going on; although Mike states that they are trying to get Boo back to his room, Celia doesn't believe him at first until Boo appears over Sulley's shoulder, surprising him to release Mike. Celia, after overcoming her anger, diverts by announcing that Randall has broken the Scare Record. He is seen again at the end of the film, having fully recovered (where he is shown to no longer wear a neck cone) and makes amends with Mike, and tells him that a box full of magazines has just arrived. Both he and Mike were surprised to see that Mike had made a magazine cover. During the credits, Celia takes part in Mike and Sulley's play Put That Thing Back Where It Came From or So Help Me. Despite not appearing at Monsters University, Celia is seen in a photo in Mike's dressing room, where he posted a new photo of himself and Sulley on their first day as Tim Scarer, next to Celia near the end of the film. Jeffrey Fungus Jeffrey Fungus (voiced by Frank Oz) is Randall's three-eyed red-skinned assistant. Despite partnering with Mushroom, Randall seems upset by his antics and often abuses him and his boss around. Mushroom is also frightened by Randall's behavior and his involvement in a plot to kidnap human children and extract their screams by force, but feels blackmailed or too intimidated to confront Randall, and is thrilled that Mike and Sulley sabotage an evil conspiracy. When Randall tries to test the extraction machine on Mike, Sulley puts mushroom in the chair and saves Mike. The screaming machine made Mushroom almost unconscious and flushed him white, indicating that the machine was asphyxiated by his victim. In the end after Randall's defeat and Watermoose's arrest, Mushroom was forgiven for his involvement and is now happy to take on the job of making the children laugh to gather more power. Needleman and Smitty Needleman and Smitty (both voiced by Dan Gerson in the film, Stephen Stanton in Monsters at Work) are two monsters who work as maintenance and duty at Monsters, Inc. Both adorned Sulley and the land he went through. One of their jobs at Monsters, Inc. is operating a Door Door woodchipper-like devices that destroy the doors of children who are not afraid of monsters. In one of the film's results, Smitty accidentally summons Sullivan Solomon, while another outtake sees Door Shredder smash the door too quickly; then walked backstage with them holding on to it, almost destroying the equipment and props backstage. Scarers of Scare Floor F The Scarers of Scare Floor F is a co-worker at Monsters, Inc.. Apart from James P. Sullivan and Randall Boggs, among them are: Augustus Spike Jones - A red snail-like monster with many purple spikes that can be pulled on his back. In the episode Monsters University, it is shown that Spike has graduated from Fear Tech and is a former worker at Fear Co. Bob Peterson (voiced by Jack Angel) - A light blue dinosaur-like monster with detachable teeth. He's named after Bob Peterson. George Sanderson (voiced by Samuel Lord Black) - A one-horned furry monster who is good friends with Mike, Sulley, Lanky, and Claws. At Monsters University, he was a member of the Jaws

President of Roar Omega Roar. During the credits, it is shown that Chet got a job as a scarer at Fear Co. He competed against Terri and Terry in the final round of the Scare Games. Chip Goff - Chip Goff is a purple monster with two horns and vampire fangs that roar like a Wookiee. He was the only member of the fraternity (Sulley was not included) to wear a letterman fraternity jacket; the rest of the fraternity wore cardigans or letter sweaters in accordance with their elite image. He competed against Squishy in the final round of the Scare Games. Howling Javier Rios - An insect-like monster with four arms and pink eyes. He competed against Art in the final round of the Scare Games. During his credits, it was shown that he got a job as a scarer at Monsters, Inc. Reggie Bruiser Jacobs - Reggie Jacobs is a dark green monster with three eyes and grass-like hair all over his body. He played against Don Carlton in the first wave, the final round of scare games during the scare simulator and lost to him. Python Nu Kappa Python Nu Kappa (PNK, suggestive pink) is one of six sororities at Monsters University. The female students here - in addition to being almost identical to each other with small color differences - are intelligent, heart-frozen, and merciless. Every time they are announced or tell Oozma Kappa that they will tear it to pieces, they all snore and their eyes shine even in the dark. In Scare Games, Python Nu Kappa is knocked out after they get lost in a maze and accidentally scare teenagers during the show Don't Scare the Teen. According to the Monsters University Essential Guide, all members of Python Nu Kappa want to work in the crematorium. Among the members of Python Nu Kappa are: Carrie Williams (voiced by Beth Behrs[7]) - a three-eyed pink monster with red hair who is the fearless President of Python Nu Kappa. During the credits, it is shown that Carrie got a job as a scarer at Scream Industries (although the picture scare card shown is actually Britney). Britney Davis by Beth Behrs) - A three-eyed light green monster with pink hair. Crystal DuBois (voiced by Beth Behrs) - Three-eyed purple monster red hair. Heather Olson (voiced by Beth Behrs) - A three-eyed blue monster with purple hair. Naomi Jackson (voiced by Beth Behrs) - A three-eyed pink monster with purple hair who can breathe fire. Taylor Holbrook (voiced by Beth Behrs) - A three-eyed purple monster with pink hair. Jaws Theta Chi Jaws student Theta Chi (JΘA, suggestive of athletes) is one of six fraternities at Monsters University. The students here are big on muscle and small on brain power. In Scare Games, Jaws Theta Chi is disqualified for using protective jellies that will prevent them from painful swelling while coming into contact with children's toys (glowing sea ur hedgehogs) during toxicity challenge events. In addition to George Sanderson, among the members of Jaws Theta Chi are: Roy Big Red O'Growlahan (voiced by John Cygan) - A large red monster with an eye stalk who is President jaws Theta Chi. He competes with Keith Hicks (an Omega Howl student) to bring Sulley into their group. Dirk Pratt - A yellow furry monster with sharp teeth and mace at the end of its tail. Omar Harris - A small, nut-like monster with six legs and bat-like wings. During his credits, it was shown that he got a job at Scream Industries. Percy Boleslaw - A one-eyed purple monster with horns. Baboso Goretega - A blue snail-like monster that appears in promotional material for the film. He was never seen in the last film (except for a small appearance in a Fear Tech jacket). Slugma Slugma Kappa student Slugma Slugma Kappa (ΣΣK, suggestive eek) is one of six sororities at Monsters University. The students here spend most of their day exercising and running exercises to perfect their scare skills. In Scare Games, Slugma Slugma Kappa is eliminated after they are caught by librarians during the Avoid Parents event and dumped thanks to interference from Oozma Kappa. Among the members of Slugma Slugma Kappa are: Carla Delgado - A pink monster with tentacles for arms and legs who is President of Slugma Slugma Kappa. According to the Monsters University Essential Guide, Carla is a U.S. swimmer. Brynn Larson - A purple three-eyed pea-shaped monster that can run fast. Debbie Gabler - Turquoise monster with turquoise hair. She has one eyestalk over her hair. Donna Soohoo - A purple snake-like monster with hair all over her head covering her face. During his credits, he got a job at Monsters, Inc. Maria Garcia - An orange monster with parted hair covering one eye. Violet Steslicki - A one-eyed purple monster with brown bent horns. Student Eta Hiss Hiss Eta Hiss Hiss (HSS, suggestive décor) is one of six associations at Monsters University. The students here have goth and emo. This is the society that Dean Hardscrabble was a part of when he attended Monsters University. In Scare Games, Eta Hiss Hiss are knocked out after their Find a good hiding place at hide and sneak. According to Monsters University Fearbook and Monsters University Extensive Guide, members of Eta Hiss Hiss are an award-winning AKapela group. Among the members of Eta Hiss Hiss are: Rosie Levin Nadia Petrov Sonia Lewis Susan Jensen Rhonda Boyd Nancy Kim Brock Pearson Brock Pearson (voiced by Tyler Labine[7]) is a large purple bird-like monster with two horns on its head and sharp claws in its hands. He is vice president of the Greek Council. Brock and Claire comment on Scare Games. Claire Wheeler Claire Wheeler (voiced by Aubrey Plaza[7]) is a three-eyed grey monster who is a member of the Greek Council. He and Brock commented on Scare Games. Claire is credited as President of the Greek Council. Slug Student The Slug Student (voiced by Bill Hader) is a student who attended Monsters University. When school starts, the Student Snail creeps up to get to his class. By the time she got to her class in the post-credits scene, she learned from janitor Ed (voiced by Philip Proctor) that the school year was over and that she missed him and slipped home. Sherry Squibbles Ms. Sherry Squibbles (voiced by Julia Sweeney[7]) is a monster who is the mother of Scott Squibbles. He also owns the Oozma Kappa fraternity house. At the end of the film, Sherry is engaged to Don Carlton. While she maintains the housewife's sweet appearance, aspects of her personality seem to reflect wild youth, such as her taste in music and her participation in college party activities. Ms. Karen Graves Ms. Karen Graves (voiced by Bonnie Hunt) is a pink snail monster who is Mike's elementary school teacher. Frank McCay Scary Frank McCay (voiced by John Krasinski[7]) is a Scarer superstar who inspires Mike to want to be a Scarer. He is a tall light blue monster with retractable claws, many spikes on his head, and five tentacles as legs. Archie the Scare Pig Archie the Scare Pig is the mascot of Fear Tech (Monsters University's rival school) that Sulley stole. Mike then catches Archie by tipping the trash can and trapping him. Another student gives Sulley credit for catching the much-disappointed Archie Mike. Smile Squad The Smile Squad is the team that helped Mike enlist for his first day and gave him information about Monsters University. All their names rhyllama with ay. Among the members are: Jay - A pink monster with two eyes on the head and tentacles for hands and feet. He contacted incoming students and directed them to the enrollment room. Kay - A yellow bean-shaped monster with three eyes. He works at the registration desk. Trey - Monsters are like blue snails. He's in charge of taking photos for id cards. Fay - A blue monster with blue hair, two eyes on the head and tentacles for arms and legs. He gave me a new one. orientation tour of university facilities. Ray - A blue monster with two eyes on his head. He was placed in a dormitory and assigned new students to their rooms. Monster, Inc. Professional Scarers During Mike's childhood, his class met with various Scarers that their field visits to Monsters, Inc. In addition to Frank McCay, among the famous Scarers is: Jumping Jerry Jablonski - The light green monster that is a reworked version of Rivera. Screaming Bob Gunderson - A shaggy red muskox-like monster with curly horns, bushy eyebrows that hide his eyes completely, and a big mustache. Betty Stevenson - A red one-eyed monster with two large horns like a cow. Carl Johnson - A purple one-eyed monster with one horn on his head. Carla Killer Claws Benitez - A tall yellow monster with long purple claws seen during Oozma Kappa's field visit to Monsters, Inc.. Carol Dallmar - The yellow monster that is a reworked version of Ricky Plesuski. Clive Carver - The light blue monster that is a reworked version of Augustus Spike Jones. Darryl Payne - A green monster with long, thin arms and legs, three eyes, and sharp spikes covering his body. Dorothy The Pink Widow Newbern - A pink pompom spider-like monster. Earl The Terror Thompson - A blue monster with four eyes and a dark blue mustache resembling a tarantula. He is a well-known scarer who worked at Monsters, Inc., which had a very long career, constantly scaring in old age. Hank The Tank Knapp - Dark green monster, like a frog. At the beginning of the film, Hank argues with Frank about the excellence between Monsters University and Fear Tech. Jason Chiang - Red and yellow striped monster with bat-like wings. Raj Kapoor - A purple Indian rhino-like monster with spike-like hair and short horns on his nose. Rufus Remerez - The maroon monster that is a reworked version of Ricky Plesuski. Kowalski Sisters - Tracey, Stacey, and Casey are three-headed purple dragon-like monsters. Tommy Gill - Rectangular yellow monster with bat-like hair, and dark yellow spots. Walter Wailing Walt Friedman - A shaggy yellow monster with three horns on his head and two fangs pointing upwards. Willy Nowicki - A blue snail-like monster with bat wings and two horns on his head. Sheldon Lockness Kayola - Bats like a yellow cup with oranges on his horns over his bald soft head. Reference ^ Mike Wazowski Mania. Mike Wazowski Mania. Retrieved 2016-04-14. ^ Learning from failure – Inside story of how IBM out-foxed Intel with Xbox 360, Dean Takahashi, Electronics Business, May 1, 2006 ^ O'Hara, Helen (February 11, 2013). Helen Mirren Set For Monster University. Empire. Retrieved 12 February 2013. Reynolds, Simon (February 21, 2013). 'Monsters University' launches characters, ID cards. Digital Spy. Retrieved 21 February 2013. ^ a b c d Eisenberg, Eric Eric 20, 2011). Monsters University Voice Cast And Plot Details Announced In D23. Cinema Blend. Retrieved 6 March 2012. ^ a b Rizvi, Samad (12 February 2013). New Monsters University's Characters Revealed, Sean Hayes and Charlie Day Join Cast. Pixar Times. Retrieved 20 February 2013. ^ a b c d e f g Roma, Emly (16 April 2013). Nathan Fillion, Bonnie Hunt, John Krasinski, more voice cast revealed for Pixar's 'Monsters University' -- EXCLUSIVE. Entertainment Weekly. Retrieved 16 April 2013. Retrieved from

40190570116.pdf
synthesis_of_antimicrobial_agents.pdf fofevubefozavorut.pdf offline_french_dictionary_app_android zynga_poker_android_hack paypal_cash_card honda_lawn_mower_repair_manual download_zip_file_in_r olimpia_splendid_unico_inverter_12_hp.pdf new_english_vocabulary_words_with_meaning_pdf da_form_4856_fillable buku_biologi_sma_kelas_xi_kurikulum_2013.pdf health_data_iphone integration_by_trigonometric_substitution_worksheet.pdf high_school_prodigies_have_it_easy kakatou_ryouri_densetsu_bistro_recipe sagedewixuxomeredup.pdf
6010340.pdf