

The Call to Shift, Part II: The Measurement of the Shift

Rev. Lennox Zamore, Senior Pastor

I. Measure Awareness - Are people t_____ differently?

You measure awareness by observing how people relate to:

1. P_____ - Are people becoming more aware of themselves as Kingdom citizens?
2. V_____ - Do people understand and articulate the vision and mission clearly?

Church Vision: L_____ C_____ T_____

Church Mission:

- Follow and S_____ Jesus
 - Live H_____ with Accountability
 - L_____ and S_____ Sacrificially
 - G_____ God's Family
 - Faithful in all C_____.
3. P_____ - Are people recognizing what is happening around them?
 4. O_____ - Are people moving from "What are they doing about it" to "What can I do about it"?
 5. L_____ - Is language revealing awareness?
 6. I_____ - Are people aware of themselves as influencers, ambassadors, and representatives?
 7. P_____ - Are people only seeing just church activity as ministry or are they beginning to see their work, family, and environment as ministry?
 8. I_____ - Is the big question shifting from "What the church service was like?" to "What impact are we having in the community?"
 9. V_____ - Are people placing greater value on impact over comfort?
 10. C_____ - Is the new mindset showing up consistently, or only in moments?

II. Measure A_____ - Are people a_____ differently?

1. Taking I_____ - Are people in wait-and-see mode or are they in activation mode?
2. Applying T_____ - Is instruction just relaying information or producing action?
3. Engaging the C_____ - Activation is a measurement of faith in everyday life.
4. C_____ Action (Not Occasional) - Are actions regular and ongoing?
5. Stepping Out of C_____ Z_____ - Are people stretching beyond what is easy or familiar?
6. Being Part of the S_____ - Activated people don't just see problems, they see solutions.
7. Multipling I_____ - Activation multiplies; it doesn't sustain isolation.
8. Aligning with V_____ - Are people acting in line with vision and purpose by supporting shared direction? Living Christ TOGETHER.
9. Making Faith V_____ - Is faith being expressed in practical, observable ways such as serving others, speaking truth, and demonstrating integrity and character., etc.? Kingdom activation makes faith visible.
