Experiences

“I invested in coaching with Judy Hansen. I am a different person.

I have had a sense carrying what felt like dark clouds over me most of my life from remembering specific painful events from childhood through adult years.

I was aware holding a lot of anger and pain, however I just didn't know how to let the dark clouds go.

I re-connected to my father's spirit who transitioned couple of years ago. I was able to deeply forgive him and myself for all of the events that I believed that caused me pain, feeling unworthy and undeserving.

For the first time in my life, I am able to have a genuine loving mother and daughter relationship with my mother. I can look her in her eyes and feel a deep love connection.

My life has changed and I feel uplifting, lighter with more love.”

Experiences

I made a decision to hire Judy as my Spiritual Life Coach to help with my business growth. I learned early on in working with Judy the undercurrent of things that were causing doubt, uncertainty and worry in my life.

I found out the importance of clearing out old beliefs, habits and patterns meant that I had to dive deep into my childhood stuff to uncover and release toxic memories.

I immediately experienced results with valuable tools so; I could transfer to the next level of a spirit, mind and body approach to my business. My personal relationships with loved ones improved and I became more grounded and confident in my life.

I highly recommend Judy's coaching program.

Experiences

I am a mother of three young children and was experiencing tremendous anxiety.

It was beginning to become more difficult in keeping my anxiety and stress under wraps even with regular exercise and yoga.

I kept thinking that life had to be better than this. I was recommended by my massage therapist to contact Judy.

After just one session, I noticed more calmness and after several sessions, I am more opened, peaceful and have gained clarity.
I have a new lease on life.

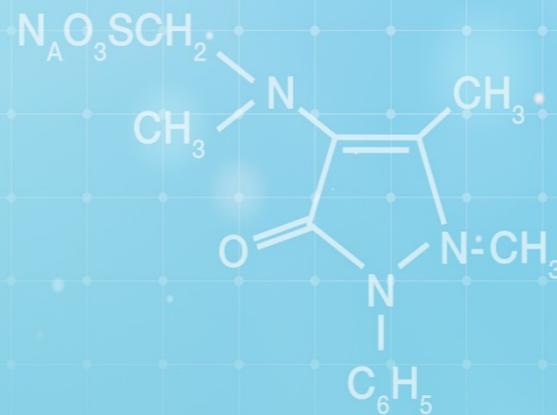

Investing in coaching with Judy has transformed my life. I am a better mother, wife, and daughter-in-law.
