Who sings carry on my wayward son in supernatural

Kansas with Jared, Jensen and Misha at Comic-Con 2017. "Carry On Wayward Son" by Kansas is the closest thing Supernatural has to a theme song. It has been embraced by fandom and is usually sung as the final song at karaoke at Supernatural Conventions, and just about any time two of more SPN fans get together! The song was first used over the montage at the beginning of 1.21 Salvation, it has subsequently been used at the beginning of the finale episodes 2.22 All Hell Breaks Loose: Part Two, 3.16 No Rest for the Wicked, 4.22 Lucifer Rising, 5.22 Swan Song, 6.22 The Man Who Knew Too Much, 7.23 Survival of the Fittest, 8.23 Sacrifice, 9.23 Do You Believe in Miracles?, 10.23 Brother's Keeper, 11.23 Alpha and Omega, 12.23 All Along the Watchtower, 13.23 Let the Good Times Roll, 14.20 Moriah and 15.20 Carry On. In the series finale, the song does not play over the beginning of the episode like usual. Instead, it plays over the Impala's radio as Dean drives through Heaven. Eric Kripke said of the song, "We had an old jukebox in our basement growing up. I found a song on it that I liked and played a LOT: #CarryOnWaywardSon." The song was written by band member Kerry Livgren, and originally recorded by Kansas for their 1976 album Leftoverture. Kansas made a documentary about the "song that changed the world." At Comic-Con 2017 the Supernatural panel in Hall H opened with a live performance of "Carry On Wayward Son" by Kansas. Lyrics Carry On Wayward Son Carry on my wayward son There'll be peace when you are done Lay your weary head to rest Don't you cry no more Once I rose above the noise and confusion Just to get a glimpse beyond this illusion I was soaring ever higher, but I flew too high Though my eyes could see I still was a blind man Though my mind could think I still was a mad man I hear the voices when I'm dreamin', I can hear them say Carry on my wayward son, There'll be peace when you are done Lay your weary head to rest Don't you cry no more Masquerading as a man with a reason My charade is the event of the season And if I claim to be a wise man, it surely means that I don't know On a stormy sea of moving emotion Tossed about I'm like a ship on the ocean I set a course for winds of fortune, but I hear the voices say Carry on my wayward son, There'll be peace when you are done Lay your weary head to rest Don't you cry no more Carry on, you will always remember Carry on, nothing equals the splendor Now your life's no longer empty Surely heaven waits for you Carry on my wayward son, There'll be peace when you are done Lay your weary head to rest Don't you cry, Don't you cry no more, No more – Kerry Livgren, Kansas Covers For Supernatural: The Anime Series, a cover version of "Carry On Wayward Son" by Mark Ishikawa plays over the end credits of every episode. You can watch the end credits here. In 2016 it was performed by the artist Iacovos with the music video featuring a Supernatural themed sketch. (Link) For 10.05 Fan Fiction, a cover of "Carry On Wayward Son" was produced by series composer Jay Gruska, featuring Vivien Amour, Alyssa Lynch, Kelli Ogmundson, Katie Sarife, Rachel Warkentin & Nina Winkler on vocals. The song would again be used in "The Road So Far" montage for 10.23 Brother's Keeper, before kicking into the original version of the song. You can purchase this version here. For the series finale, "Carry On Wayward Son" was used in an ending montage showing Dean driving through Heaven and Sam living his life on earth. The song eventually shifts to a cover version by the group Neoni and is played as Sam eventually passed away from old age and is reunited with Dean in Heaven. You can listen to Neoni's cover here. External links Supernatural Cast and Kansas Supernatural fans were recently touched by an angel. Over the weekend, star Misha Collins, who plays the winged Castiel on the long-running CW series, hosted an online sing-along of the show's spiritual anthem: Kansas' "Carry On Wayward Son". Joining Collins were the Winchester brothers themselves Jensen Ackles and Jared Padalecki, members of the SPN family, and, yes, Kansas. Together, over digital campfire, they sang their hearts out, treating the Zoom room like a sweaty convention floor. The online reunion was part of Collins' ensuing GISH (Greatest International Scavenger Hunt) event, which continues to benefit charities across the world. This was just one of many spectacles the star has offered all summer long. Elsewhere in the 20-minute chat, conversations ranged from summer sweat to would-be Zoom backgrounds to various trivia involving the '70s rock legends. For fans, it was simply a treat seeing the trio back together — even if they were boxed apart. After all, Supernatural was set to end its epic 15-year run this past May — that is, before the pandemic hit and changed everything. Instead, production was forced to shut down, leaving half of its final 15th season in limbo until filming can resume. The good news is that the first half of the final 15th season is currently on Netflix, in addition to — get this — all 14 prior seasons. You may think that's a daunting task — and it certainly is — but this writer can attest to it being … quite a quick watch. Reunite with the Winchesters below, and head to GISH to become a hunter yourself. In 1977, the song peaked at No. 11 on the US Billboard Hot 100, becoming their first top 20 entry in the US.[3] The song was certified Gold by the RIAA on December 18, 1990.[4] Overview The 7-inch single was certified gold by the RIAA. This version was a much shorter version of the song, edited down to 3:26, a version that was also the band's only single to chart in the UK, reaching No. 51 there.[5] All initial releases of the single had a B-side of "Questions of My Childhood". The song was later re-released on all Kansas compilation albums (except for Works in Progress) and all Kansas live albums. The song is now certified quadruple platinum. In other media "Carry On Wayward Son" is considered the unofficial theme song of the TV series Supernatural.[11] It is played during the recap before every season finale of Supernatural, with the exception of the first season, where it was played during the recap of the penultimate episode.[12] At the end of the show's 200th episode in season 10, the cast of a play based on Supernatural sing the song. The song was also featured prominently in the series finale, titled "Carry On", referencing the song. Featured in the episode was the original song and a cover version by Neoni.[13] References ^ "Top Of The Progs: Kansas - Carry On Wayward Son". TeamRock.com. "One of the songs on it was 'Carry on Wayward Son' and I played it all the time through high school. The soundtrack of the show, certainly in those early years, when it was classic rock, those weren't just classic rock songs, those were the songs from my collection. At the end of season 1, we were cutting the first of the 'Road So Far' trailers. We wanted to do a recap to remind everyone what happened all season but we really wanted to do it in a way that wasn't the same old avalanche of exposition. [Producer] Phil [Sgriccia] and I looked at 'Carry on Wayward Son' and set it to this long recap and it just came to life because the lyrics seemed to fit what the brothers were going through." However, there's one part of the story that fans don't talk about nearly as much. "What people don't remember is that in season 1, that was the second-to-last episode that 'Carry on Wayward Son' played," Kripke continues. "And then we tried to do another 'road so far' for the finale set to Triumph's 'Fight the Good Fight' and it was just obvious it just didn't take the way that 'Carry on Wayward Son' took. You could just tell from fan response that people were not digging it. I guess if they had dug that, the theme song could've been 'Fight the Good Fight' but everyone really responded to 'Carry on Wayward Son' so then next season we started the tradition of putting it on for the final episode." For fans, the song will always mark the end of a season, though, in just a few weeks, when fans hear the song one last time, they'll know it means they've arrived at the end of the series.
