

MENTAL HEALTH CONFERENCE
IN THE HAMPTONS
SPONSORSHIP PACKAGES

2025

INTRODUCTION

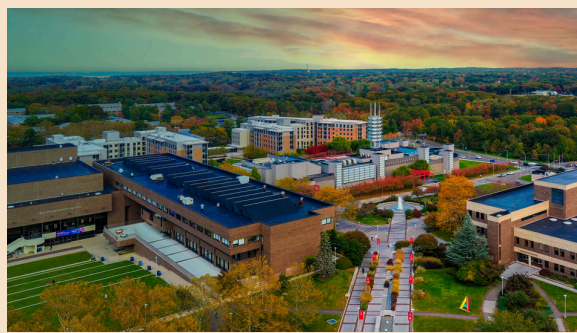

For over 40 years, the National Association of Puerto Rican-Hispanic Social Workers, Inc. (NAPRHSW) has strongly advocated for Latino families. From policy change to professional development, our mission remains steadfast: to uplift Latino communities by training, supporting, and mobilizing culturally responsive social workers and human services leaders.

Together, we can expand access, deepen impact, and continue paving futures. We welcome your support as a sponsor in making this celebration not only memorable, but transformational.

ABOUT THE EVENT

Date: Saturday, October 4, 2025

Time: 10:00 AM - 8:00 PM ET

Location: 39 Tuckahoe Road, Southampton, NY 11968
Stony Brook University, Southampton Campus

Across Long Island and beyond, mental health is no longer a quiet issue—it's an urgent call for change. The National Mental Health Conference at the East End will bring together community organizations, professionals, educators, advocates, and residents to confront barriers to care and share solutions.

This gathering is more than a meeting—it's a space for connection, learning, and action. With a focus on culturally responsive, community-driven approaches, the conference will highlight both the challenges and innovations shaping mental health today. Sessions will equip participants with knowledge, skills, and resources to improve outcomes across the lifespan, with eligible workshops offering Continuing Education (CE) credits.
