Bio

DJ87 has evolved from spinning intimate club sets to commanding some of the biggest stages in New Orleans and beyond. His performances have lit up popular venues including The Fillmore, House of Blues, Tipitina's, Toulouse Theatre, ARORA, and The Rabbit Hole. In 2022, he served as resident DJ for the Wednesday at the Square concert series, further solidifying his reputation as a local tastemaker. In November 2026, DJ87 will perform at the inaugural We Belong Here: New Orleans festival.

Over the past few years, DJ87 has shared the stage with some of the most acclaimed names in global electronic music — including Nils Hoffmann, Marsh, Le Youth, Parra For Cuva, Felix Martin (Hot Chip), Jerro, GARZA (Thievery Corporation), Mannie Fresh, and Darius — with standout performances at Anjunadeep Open Air events, widely regarded as among the premier live electronic experiences on the planet.

DJ87 blends a broad spectrum of sounds into a cohesive, groove-heavy experience — weaving between melodic and organic house, disco, funk-infused electronica, soulful edits, and left-field remixes. His sets are a journey through rhythm and feeling, designed as much for dancefloor catharsis as for elevated listening.
