-r bluetux: Yes, then you can fix it with the following command: `gpg --keyserver hkp://keyserver.ubuntu.com:80 --recv-keys 5AA0EB3`. ZykoticK9>I'll give that a try and see what I get. i need help with this Laiter: that's what i was thinking... it just seems like it's not working properly or not at all ok Anyone can help me? !ask | zilkomaa zilkomaa: Please don't ask to ask a question, simply ask the question (all on ONE line and in the channel, so that others can read and follow it easily). If anyone knows the answer they will most likely reply. :-) webpirate, i have it set to 12 hour instead of 1 !cookie > ZykoticK9 ZykoticK9, please see my private message ZykoticK9>Do you use sleep at all? So how do i find out my GPU's PCI ID? metalicanirvana: you have libtool installed? drumstyk1, look here webpirate, not with my current configuration - i'm not really one for hoovering sleep around at this point ok, thanks Laiter i have libtool installed webpirate, i think i used to use it but don't any more metalicanirvana: pastebin the output of `Â« apt-cache policy libtool Â»` drumstyk1, there are different options that use the same name, with little or big differences. 520fdb1ae7
