Cinema 4d logo templates free

Cinema 4D is a 3D modeling, rendering, animation and motion graphics software package used by many companies working in broadcast media, advertising, architecture, games and design to create outstanding 3D visual effects. With its amazing tool, ease of use and compatibility with Adobe and other popular apps, it appeals to creatives who need to add 3D elements to their workflow. In this tutorial, I'll show you 19 of the coolest movie 4D templates to be found on VideoHive. Most have animated logos that work well as an intro for various multimedia projects, while some offer other features such as infographics. Cubist C4D Logo Animation C4D Logo Animation provides a selection of two beautifully designed logos created from cubes flying together to form the text and shape of the logo. A 20-minute video tutorial is provided to help users replace the sample with their own logo. Additional background sound is also included in file.2. Dynamic Countdown Dynamic Countdown uses balls constantly reforming from nine to zero to create a rather quirky and charming way of counting. Users with beginner skills in Cinema 4D can easily replace balls with any other geometric shape and change the font, text, color, background and speed of transition to suit your needs. 3. The book is an interesting and interesting way to present video clips, photos, a portfolio of art or even a recipe book. There are three style books to choose from in this template, and each presents a book that moves across the screen as the pages turn to present new content. Three video tutorials are included with shopping to help you integrate content. 4. 3D Magazine Animation 3D Magazine Animation does not have the bells and whistles of the previous template, but its clean and simple design will appeal to those who want to present their photos, images or other images portfolio in a simple manner. Patterns provide users with ten pages of magazine and comes in three versions. 5. The geometry of the logo logo logo has a hand-drawn quality that would be well suited to those looking for a fresh and creative way to present their logo. This template works for about nine seconds, is very easy to edit, and displays very quickly. 6. Spline Logo 2 Spline Logo 2 has a cleaner modern look, so it will probably be best suited for corporate or media business. This Cinema 4D logo comes with a useful video tutorial that will help you customize the template. 7. Info Graphics 3D Info Graphics 3D is a bit of a departure from the other templates featured here. It's not a logo like many others but as the name implies provides 52 professionally executed charts in five different topics. Ideal for financial firms or other corporations that often process comparative data. 8. Epic Logo Show Epic Logo Show Is Perfect for Those Looking for pattern with a bit of movie theatricality. The template is 25 seconds long, easy to set up and includes an audio file. As with other templates, tutorials are provided to help you update the template with your own information. 9. Children's film Intro 4D Kids Film Intro 4D is the perfect knife for any movie targeting children. The template is only 23 seconds, and the cartoon graphics are colorful and playful, as you would expect. Although the music track is not included in the template, the vendor provides a link where you can purchase it.10. Kids Text 2 Kids Text 2 is another children's intro template. This one uses amazingly animated text instead of cartoons. Three backgrounds are included in the template that uses Full HD 1080p and HD 1280p. Plug-ins for the template are not required, and the video tutorial is included. 11. Water Logo Show If you like the look of blue water rippling under a strong wind, then you probably like the Water Logo Reveal. A fully customizable template works well with any logo that is square or rectangular in shape. Just follow the step-by-step video tutorial to get your logo created at the right time.12 Elegant 3D Intro Clean and simple Style Elegant 3D Intro will appeal to businesses looking for a professional intro template for corporate projects. The template uses resizable resolution, so it can be used in projects of different sizes and is easy to customize once you follow the instructions in the video tutorial provided. 13. The Text Logo Opener Text Opener is quite stylish, and will appeal to companies that do not mind getting out of corporate form. The template comes in two versions, one with text only and one with text and logo. 14. Circles Logo C4D Circles Logo C4D will not surpass. It's easier than the text logo opener above, but certainly not enough on the pizazz. The template comes in four different colors, and a tutorial is provided to show you how to adapt the logo to the template. 15. Explosion Logo There is something very organic looking about the exploding logo. The 12-second intro begins with a fiery explosion that sends ash particles into the air. These particles then form the text of the logo as the smoke from the fire dissipates. Probably not everyone has a cup of tea, but it will certainly bring drama to any project that it will open.16 Comedy Show Talking about the pattern of not all cups of tea, the Comedy Show template will probably appeal to a limited number of palettes. However, with its bright upbeat colors and flashing graphics, it will work very well for those in show business, especially those, as the title suggests, in comedy. 17. Transforming the Logo Reveal The Transformation Of the Logo Show is another fairly specialized template that will make a great knife for content created by gamers, or perhaps sci-fi or Four-minute video drive users up the steps pattern by changing color, text, font and scale or importing your own logo.18 Sport News Intro Sport news producers will most appreciate the Sport News Intro template, which provides not only a wonderfully dynamic opener, but a few stylish bottom thirds and conversions as well. 19. 3D Broadcast Logo Animation Another logo that is perfect for the world of television broadcasting, 3D Broadcast Logo Animation is a chic and fast animated logo that is ready to be used for any television or YouTube intro by simply replacing the text on its own.
