DI DII DIII — FSU Football (@FSUSoccer) November 15, 2020 Just four minutes later Robbins did it again, this time remotely. It all started by Gabby Karl, who held the ball on the right side of the field near the midfield line. Karl moved it from the sideline to Nesbeth, who headed center field before crossing it with Clara Robbins about 25 yards from the net. Robbins took a few steps before launching a rocket from 20 yards out of the right and into the back of the net, giving Florida State a 2-0 lead. He can't stop! Robbins takes 2-0 with his second goal in six minutes! #OneTribe ☑️: pic.twitter.com/2vAnYB5hYp — FSU Soccer (@FSUSoccer) November 15, 2020 In the 13th minute, the Seminoles would get another corner that would end up on Robbins' head, this time the UNC keeper was able to catch it. North Carolina then pushed the ball down to Emily Fox, who will challenge Florida State's defense and eventually lead to a North Carolina corner kick. The Tar Heels corner was going from the head of one of their players and right from the right corner. A few minutes later in the 21st minute, Florida State got a free kick from about 25 yards out that led to a deep shot from Malia Berkle that finally got right on the North Carolina keeper. A minute later, North Carolina will get its best look of the first half again on a corner kick. Brianna Pinto looked good and shot it to nat's left, but guess who Clara Robbins was there. He was able to kick the ball and take it away. Florida State will have two more chances before the half. In the 39th minute, the Seminoles would take another corner kick when Jalen Howell would have his head but deflected off by north Carolina's defense. In the 44th minute, Florida State was almost 3-0 with a cross from Ron Eva. Her cross rolled by both Judy Brown and Lauren Flynn going from the right before getting cleared away by the Tar Heels defence. The Seminoles quickly came out in the second half to extend their lead to 3-0. Florida State scored just one minute and 12 seconds into the half on a Lylanian Nesbeth goal Robbins. Nesbeth passed it to Robbins to return it to The Nesbeth with a one-touchdown pass. Laylani squeezed the ball between the North Carolina keeper and the bottom right corner to score his fifth goal of the season. Knowles can't be stopped! #OneTribe FSU 3, UNC 0 ☑️: pic.twitter.com/nCN0Od41Hv — FSU Soccer (@FSUSoccer) November 15, 2020 North Carolina narrowed the Florida State lead with a goal in the 59th minute. The goal came after a Kristina Lynch handball in the box led to PK scoring a penalty kick by Rachel Jones. In the 89th minute, North Carolina scored again to give Seminoles a lead, but that won't be enough as the Seminoles won their 3-2 and seventh ACC championship in program history.
