Sounds crazy, but that's exactly what mentalities are trained to do. Through the art people read they are able to make accurate assumptions about human feelings, thoughts and inner secrets. Through easy conversation, asking specific questions, and learning to look for key cues that a person uses in their tone, gestures and expressions, you can know things about them that they have never told you or anyone else. And through deep conversation (and with the permission of another person) you will learn how to use the art of hypnosis. At Rebel Magic, we study and teach this art on a daily basis. And it's amazing that you can train your mind to do. The key word is the train. You can find out about this material. And that's what we encourage everyone we know to learn and practice, because it gives any person a greater sense of control and perception throughout their life. Of course, this stuff is entertaining and can be used for life before the party. But the real reward in a clear sense of perception is it gives you throughout your daily life. Imagine being able to walk into a room full of people you've never met and have a clear idea of what kind of people are all just looking at them. One of the things that RebelMentalism teaches you is to read faces. But this is just the beginning. Conversations will never be the same. You will be able to learn a person's identity, thoughts and opportunities just from talking to them for a few minutes. You will learn the secrets of human behavior that will allow you to see beyond words and into what the meaning is behind them. But best of all, this is just the beginning of reading people.
