This is a beautiful blogger template as it is responsive, mobile-friendly and has a lots of features in it. It is crafted with love, designed and compiled with great attention to small details, and with a perfect alignment of colors and font-awesome icons. It is fully responsive and, that means, it will display perfectly in any gadget you use (including mobile devices). On the homepage you will find a beautiful article featuring a fade-in transition effect. The image section has four pictures, one per row, with the previous picture fading in, and one more picture on the right-side of the section. The right-side image is vertically centered and its color is changed with an animation to match the color of the text and the color of the page. The banner section has a beautiful vertical, fade-in animation, changing the color of the banner with each slide. It also features four images, one per row, with the previous image fading out and another on the right-side of the section. The right-side image is vertically centered. Inside the template, it has two elements, one fixed, that is, on the left side, and the other that slides on the right side. Also, there is a back-to-top element on the right-side, and you will also find a section for the typography and one for the icons. 3.4$69.95 3.5$59.95 Special Offer 3.7$49.95 Download 7 Quality 8 Saving Easy 9 Works Suggested Video 10 Support Summary 9.8 Overall About TemplateMonster.com TemplateMonster.com is a premium Web template provider.
