

JEWISH EMERGENT FELLOWSHIP COHORT II JOB DESCRIPTION

Lab/Shul is in search of a dynamic Rabbinic Fellow with experience in teen/informal education, the arts, and social justice. Ideal candidate is an engaging educator, facilitator and ritual leader, has background in the performing arts, and is a sensitive pastoral guide. Candidates must be able to work some evening and weekend events. Ability to work in a busy, entrepreneurial environment with flexibility, adaptability and sense of humor are a must.

Specific job responsibilities include:

Raising The Bar/ BMitzvah Supervision (50%)

- Partner with Rabbinic leadership and senior staff on curriculum development and revision of the B Mitzva programs for teens, families, adults
- Supervise RTB trainers on B Mitzvah training
- Serve as Worship leader for selected RTB BMitzvah rituals
- Develop community engagement and social justice curriculum and programs for RTB teen Justice Club, family programs, retreats, etc.
- Identify community partners for teen and family programming
- Partner with Program Director and Communications team on development of RTB marketing materials and communications

Pastoral Support and Ritual Leadership (20%)

- Serve as pastoral guide for Lab/Shul community members in need of support and ritual facilitation during life cycle events such as weddings, births, BMitzvah, illness and death
- Serve as part of ritual team for some Lab/Shul worship events on High Holy Days, Shabbat, holidays and community action activities

Community Organizing (20%)

- Lead clergy, organizer and facilitator for Lab/Shul's community group - Love Squad. Groups and activities including but not limited to:

- Kaddish Club: Weekly Kaddish conference calls, monthly Kaddish Club dinners, and ListServ and volunteer management
- Caring for Aging Adults

Evaluation and Organizational Learning (10%)

- Participate in the creation of shared goals for Lab/Shul including refinement of outcomes and success indicators
- Attend and participate in Lab/Shul weekly staff meetings, periodic retreats and offsites as well as community-wide Town Halls
- Collect and analyze participant feedback for program and organizational effectiveness