

romemu

JEWISH LIFE ELEVATED

Job Title: Romemu Jewish Emergent Network Rabbinic Fellow

This is a great opportunity for a rabbi with experience as a community organizer and teacher to join a dynamic team, and to develop skills to build a vibrant community...

ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Strengthening Social Action commitment and impact at Romemu
- Teaching for the Well: Romemu's Lifelong Learning initiative
- Engaging Young Tish (Romemu 20-30s somethings)
- Pastoral support
- Working with Romemu families, and Seekers' Hebrew School
- Shadowing at lifecycle officiation/Officiating at Lifecycles
- Leading on the bimah when other rabbis are away
- Planning content for and teaching at Romemu events and programs

ATTRIBUTES

- Self-starter with ability to work independently, while also being a strong team player who can follow direction and work collaboratively
- Positive, strong interpersonal skills in order to interact with clergy, staff, and community members
- Highly organized and proven ability to prioritize and multi-task in a fast-paced environment
- Committed to Romemu's mission
- Lives values of Hesed and Tzedek
- Flexible and calm in the face of changing demands and priorities
- Fluent in text and able to translate into relatable contexts
- Engaging bimah presence and homiletic ability

- Maintains high standards of personal performance in everything undertaken
- Key character traits include: integrity, honesty, warmth, moral courage, maturity, and kindness