

Michael R. McGarvey, MD (Mick) is a retired physician executive with extensive experience in public, private and academic sectors. His prior service includes Vice President for Health Affairs, Hunter College, City University of New York; Executive Assistant to the President, New York City Health & Hospitals Corporation; Deputy Director and Chief Medical Officer, New York State Office of Health Systems Management; Corporate VP for Health Affairs, Empire Blue Cross Blue Shield of New York; Managing Director, Alexander & Alexander Consulting Group; and Chief Medical Officer of Horizon Blue Cross Blue Shield of New Jersey.

In retirement, Dr. McGarvey serves on the board of directors of The Institute for Community Living, Inc. (providing housing, mental health, social and medical services to seriously mentally ill New Yorkers); and NYCHSRO/MedReview, a medical review organization based in New York.

He divides his time between homes in Manhattan, the Hudson River Valley, and Spokane, WA.