Download these animal farm print to help kids work on preschool skills Recently we have done quite a few agricultural activities for kids. First we used these pages coloring farm animals, then we made this cute chicken handprint and played with this farm theme a small world play, and we finished it reading some of our favorite farm animal books for kids. Today we share these printed sheets of farm animals and activities for children. There's a variety of prints in this package that can work or be adapted for toddlers, preschoolers, prek and kindergarten kids. Read below to see how universal these prints are. Animal Farm Sheets This post contains affiliate links for your convenience. You can read my full disclosure here. Farm Animal Letter Mazes These sheets are such a simple and fun way to help your children or students recognize the upper and lower register of letters. On each page your child will color the specified upper register and lower register letters to make their way from the beginning of the maze depending on the end of the maze. This set includes letters C for chicken, g for goose, h for horse, and s for sheep. Related: Popsicle Stick Tractor Craft for Kids Farm Flashcards Lee Let the term flash card scare you off! These flash cards are cute, colorful and so attractive to kids. And, you don't have to use them in a traditional flash card-y way if you don't want to! We have a whole post about unique ways to use flash cards with kids, so check that out if you need more ideas. Chicken Life Cycle Printables Inside this farm pack, we also included a chicken life cycle poster and sheets. Children can refer to the poster to learn the basic sequences in the stages of the chicken's life. Farm Color Letters This simple color of the letter sheet is great for helping children recognize the letters and colored words of the look. Farm memory games in almost every themed printed set we share we include memory cards for the game. They are just an easy way to fill some quiet time and can be used in a ton of different ways. Farm Paper Strip Puzzles These full color print puzzles are perfect for busy bags! We like to laminate them as we use them over and over again. If your kids need help figuring out puzzles you can also use a marker to write letters or numbers at the bottom of each band so they can put them in the right order. Farm Handwriting Practice Sheets We also included 10 unique sheets to help children practice their handwriting. On each sheet, it shows children the correct way of forming the upper and lower register of letters, has a word on the first line and the top and register letters on subsequent lines. Apple Play Dough Mats These 10 cute print dough mats each have a different number (1-10) of apples on the tree. Your child's job is to form the same number of apples from the dough game, please have them them squares, and then count the total number of apples on each page. Print Farm Emergent Reader Book This simple little book has 9 pages, each of which has one or two simple suggestions for children to read. It comes in black and white so children can read the story and color in the scene based on the sentences listed on each page. Farm Animal Fine Motor Sheet On this page sheet kids can practice fine motor skills by tracking or cutting along dotted lines! Label Pig Leaf There are children of color, cut and match different parts of the pig on the terms at the bottom of the page. Farm Fun For Your Kids This farm pack is loaded with over 40 pages to keep your kids busy learning for hours! A little more baby baby Ideas you could enjoy are: Dinosaur activities for toddlers fine motor activities for toddlers These zoo animal sheets are a fun way to get your preschoolers and pre-k kids to work on a variety of topics! Every child loves the zoo, so we decided to do these prints with cute and fun zoo animals. Your child will be working on topics such as letter recognition, counting, memory, templates, simple additions, handwriting and more! Letter Mazes We tend to include these simple maze letters in our table bundles because kids love to play with them! All they have to do is start from the beginning and follow the designated letter through the maze to get to the finish line of the field! You can print them out for one time of use and their color boxes or you can laminate them and use markers like pom poms, beans, cereals or anything else small enough to fit inside the box. Animal zoo Flashcards These cute zoo flash cards can be used in many ways! We suggest laminate them before first use so they can be used over and over again. Print two sets and use as a simple matching game for your child. You can also find many other attractive ways to use flash cards with kids here. Letter Recognition Sheets We also included these zoo animal letter recognition sheets. There are seven sheets that cover the letters E, L, M, O, P, T and C. On the left side of the page, children must find the assigned letter in the boxes. They can use do point markers to smear each of the letters they find. On the right side of the page, children will practice making upper and lower register letters. There is one line that has dotted letters for them to trace, and then the line below is empty for children to write in the letter themselves. Free Printed Number Strip Puzzles These puzzle strip numbers are a fun way for kids to build a puzzle and work on counting skills. We suggest first to laminate them, and then cut the pieces. If you want to turn this set of sheets into a set of 3-ring binders, we suggest using adhesive Velcro on the back of each strip. Then laminate a blank sheet of white paper and place the appropriate Velcro glue on this blank page. Silhouette Matching Sheets This sheet is great for kids to practice visual discrimination. We included two different styles. The first sheet has both silhouettes and matches on one page. Simply cut the dotted box at the bottom and your child insert them on the correct boxes. The second sheet is a full page and works easier when you create 3 rings of a busy binder. Laminate both pages and then add Velcro glue on the back of the animal and the top of the silhouette for the children. It's a lot of fun! Over preschool sheets We have also included a number of other sheets for children to work on different skills. These include: the color matching leafy animals counting What doesn't belong sheets is a major addition with picture sheets to finish the pattern sheet It may be our favorite piece of bundle because these sheets are colorful and feel more like a game than sheets! Our preschooler's favorite from the whole group is to finish the print template. He will do them over and over again! You can get the whole zoo print set below.
