Los Angeles' preeminent festival, bringing the top names in contemporary classical music together with world-renowned youth orchestras, jazz combos and solo instrumentalists. Los Angeles

The LA Phil is the nation's premier orchestra and one of the foremost chamber orchestras in the United States. Founded in 1943, the LA Phil is internationally recognized for its high level of musical performance, its educational outreach programs and its commitment to the City of Los Angeles. In addition to its Orchestra and Chorus, the Phil presents many events and activities throughout the year, including our popular Summer Intensive Programs for students and Audience members. The LA Phil educates thousands of people each year through our performing arts and educational outreach programs. In addition to music, the LA Phil also regularly presents comedy, dance, film and other performances. Your contribution, however small, is greatly appreciated. Thank you! Your contribution is tax deductible. The LA Phil strives to be accessible, affordable and innovative. Your donation of any amount will go towards this goal. Donations of more than $2,500 will receive matching funds from the City of Los Angeles. The LA Phil commits itself to serving the diverse music and performing arts communities of Los Angeles through music education, performing arts and outreach programs. We are committed to providing access to a diverse array of arts experiences and to promoting the arts in an accessible and inviting environment for all. Donations of any amount are tax deductible. Please call (213) 625-3000 or visit www.laphil.org for additional information. You may also contribute by making your check out to the "LA Phil Fund" and mailing it to: Los Angeles Philharmonic Attn: Philanthropy Committee 10050 Wilshire Blvd. Beverly Hills, CA 90210 Contributions to the LA Phil are fully tax-deductible and are used to support the broad range of activities of the orchestra.
