Duty Warden

The PCC is looking for volunteers to take on the role of duty warden. This would involve acting as 'warden' on a rota basis, once a month or less, on a Sunday morning (9.30am-12.30). It does not involve joining the PCC or any other duties.

Please email the office for the role description and consider if this is a way you could support our church.

Spring Clean after the 10.30am Sunday service 26th April.

Please stay after the service to help with various cleaning tasks around the centre. Lunch will be provided. A great way to support our mission and get to know people better.

Sad News

We are very sad to announce that Geoff Slater (a very regular community lunch member) has died. He followed his wife, Joyce, who died earlier this year. We remember his family in our prayers, especially his daughter, Jane.

We are also very sad to announce that Moya Brennan has died, she was married at St Paul's in January 1991 by Michael Farrer. She visited St Paul's very recently with her husband Tim. We hold him and his children Aisling and Paul in our prayers. <https://donegalnews.com/funeral-details-announced-for-moya-brennan/>

You can also read an obituary for Anne Barrett, previous Church Warden and loved member of the church in The Telegraph: <https://www.telegraph.co.uk/obituaries/2026/04/13/ann-barrett-leading-oncologist-called-for-collaboration/?msocid=17d7c81287bd6c8f04bade10865d6d0e>
