Prity Bhattacharjee won the finale of Sony Entertainment Television's children's singing reality show Superstar Singer. She defeated five other competitors - Mauli, Sneha Shankar, Harshit Nath, Ankona Mukherjee and Nishtha Sharma - to win the trophy. Superstar Singer focuses on children between the age of 2 and 15. Apart from the judges, there are four captains on Superstar Singer whose job is to guide the contestants under their care. The captains are Sachin Valmiki, Jyotica Tangri, Salman Ali and Nitin Kumar. TV actor Jay Bhanushali presents and anchors the show. The grand finale episode was more than the announcement of the winner. The event was a brilliant, fun fun In the finale, all three judges entertained the audience by giving captivating performances of their songs. The captains also joined them in delivering mesmerizing performances. Aside from this, well-known comedians Kiku Sharda and Krushna Abhishek appeared as guests in the final episode and gave comedic performances as well. A special set was built for the final episode. Renowned art director Omung Kumar built a set over a week with materials such as plywood, iron, fiber, plasma and LED. There is no plastic and thermocol due to their non-biodegradability. A manpower of more than 450 was deployed to do the deed. © IE Online Media Services Pvt Ltd By: Entertainment Desk | New Delhi | Update: 7 October 2019 11:07:11 Prity Bhattacharjee has won the Final of Superstar Singer. Nine-year-old Prity Bhattacharjee from Kolkata was crowned the winner of Superstar Singer. She defeated five other finalists Chaitanya Devadha, Harshit Nath, Sneha Shankar, Ankona Mukherjee and Nishtha Sharma to take the top prize. Of her victory, Prity said: 'I'm too overwhelmed to say anything right now. This is a big thing for me. I never thought I'd get the chance to show my talent on such a big platform, let alone win the first edition of Superstar Singer. It's like a dream come true for me and this feeling will take time to sink in. The final episode was marked by mesmerizing performances by the judges - Alka Yagnik, Himesh Reshammiya and Javed Ali. All the finalists also gave their performances. Prity added: I will always be grateful to the judges and captains for honing my skills and to Sony Entertainment Television to give me a platform to perform for legends of the music industry and meet so many stars. And more than anything, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the public who voted wholeheartedly for all of us. All the contestants and the judges have become like a family now and I have a lump in my throat now that the show is coming to an end. I hope we can all keep in touch from now on. Nitin Kumar, who was the mentor of Prity on the show, said: The Indian public had showered me with love when I began my journey as a contestant on Indian Idol. I am happy and grateful that they have showered the same blessings on my child. I appreciate and thank everyone who came forward and showered their love for Prity by casting their vote for Prity and blessing her. Over the course of the show, the kids were given opportunities to learn and improve their singing, and the huge growth is evident to every child. I wish them all the best and hope they shine in their careers. Alka Yagnik expressed her happiness who became the first Superstar Singer. She said: Congratulations to Prity Bhattacharjee on the show in the face of tough competition. The contestants were brilliantly trained, so much so that few children who weren't expected to last a long way when they came up for auditions, stood out as finalists at the end. Their dedication and hard work have brought them this far, and I just wanted them to get bigger and better. Also in the last 14 weeks of superstar singer's journey, the kids and us have become like a family and all of us are emotionally attached to the little angels. I would like to see the children contact us from now on so that I can guide and support them in all possible capacity. 🌟 The Indian Express can now be found on Telegram.
