Unlike his elder brothers, he doesn't have a "sir" prefix on his forehead. After his family is devastated by a bribe scam involving his corrupt father, Shivam decides to quit the force and return to his native village, where he believes he can change his father's behaviour. To his surprise, the corruption continues under his own brother Satya, and Shivam finds himself fighting his own family for the first time. Satya has the rank of Inspector, and is younger than Shivam by four years. In the midst of all this, Satya's wife Neha is diagnosed with cancer and Shivam rushes back to Mumbai to support her. Satya, meanwhile, is in trouble with his own wife, Rinku. Shivam and his brother have a row and Shivam decides to leave Mumbai for good and return home. However, he meets a girl and they fall in love, and she becomes pregnant. Shivam returns to Mumbai and tries to save Satya from his own father and his own brother. Now an ex cop and a newcomer cop, Shivam learns how the system works in the underworld, and that he can make some changes in it. He is well connected to Mumbai's drug trade and crime kingpins. While going about his life, he gets closer to the underworld. Finally he uses his insider knowledge to get his brother promoted and killed, thus saving his own life and Neha's.
