

ARIZONA BLACK LAW ENFORCEMENT EMPLOYEES (A.B.L.E)

DOEG NELSON SUPERVISOR OF THE YEAR AWARD 2025–2026 APPLICATION FORM

AWARD OVERVIEW

The Doeg Nelson Supervisor of the Year Award honors a supervisor who exemplifies outstanding leadership, integrity, and dedication in managing personnel and operations within their agency. Ideal nominees demonstrate a strong commitment to fostering professional growth, maintaining ethical standards, and effectively guiding their teams through challenges.

Qualities of an exemplary nominee include:

- Proven ability to lead with vision, inspire confidence, and motivate others.
- Consistent demonstration of sound judgment and decision-making under pressure.
- Commitment to developing staff through mentorship, training, and support.
- Initiative in enhancing agency effectiveness and promoting positive workplace culture.
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills that build trust and collaboration.

This award celebrates supervisors whose leadership positively impacts their department and community, serving as role models for peers and subordinates. Nominations should highlight these attributes with clear examples of the nominee’s contributions and achievements.
