THE DRIVE

Sicily unfolds as a world of its own — luminous, layered, deeply evocative — and there is no finer way to cross it than at the wheel of a rotating lineup of Ferrari, Lamborghini and Maserati supercars. Six days from Palermo's noble architecture and Belle Époque glamour, down the wide southern coast to Agrigento, east through the baroque stone towns of the Val di Noto, and up the Ionian shore to Taormina, with a day given to the commanding presence of Mount Etna. Five-star hotels, curated tables, a dedicated support team and luggage van traveling with you, and every stop arranged in advance — you simply take the keys.

DAY BY DAY

Day 1 — Arrival in Palermo. Sicily reveals itself at once — noble architecture, layered history, the luminous sea. Settle into Villa Igiea, the island's Belle Époque icon on the Gulf of Palermo; a soft first day, and dinner together at the hotel.

Day 2 — Drive: Toward the Southern Coast — Agrigento (200 km). The driving begins in earnest, following Sicily's changing landscapes south — Palermo giving way to open countryside, sunlit hills and wide Mediterranean horizons, a wilder, more elemental side of the island. Overnight in the Agrigento area.

Day 3 — Drive: Toward Ragusa (250 km). Across southern Sicily through warm stone, open countryside and the quiet, timeless beauty of the interior, arriving in Ragusa, where the elegance of the Val di Noto brings a new rhythm and refinement to the journey.

Day 4 — Drive: Toward Taormina (280 km). North along one of the island's most evocative stretches, pausing in the seaside village of Marzamemi and in timeless Syracuse — light, history and Mediterranean atmosphere — before reaching Taormina, Sicily's most iconic coastal setting.

Day 5 — Mount Etna. A day given to the volcano whose presence shapes eastern Sicily: an expert local guide, an ascent toward the summit area by 4-wheel-drive vehicle among lava fields and extraordinary views, and lunch at the only winery located on Mount Etna, tasting the estate's wines in a setting like no other.

Day 6 — Departure from Catania. After breakfast, depart Taormina for the transfer to Catania Airport — carrying a Sicily of grandeur, light and contrast: Palermo's elegance, the southern coast, the baroque southeast and the fire of Etna.

Included throughout: three full days of driving (some 450 miles) in a rotating lineup of Ferrari, Lamborghini and Maserati — Roma Spyder, 296 GTS, 812 GTS, Purosangue, Huracán, Temerario, Urus, Revuelto, MC20 among them, models varying with availability — with fuel and highway costs covered; 5 nights in 5-star hotels with breakfast, beginning at Villa Igiea in Palermo; arrival and departure transfers; a dedicated support team and luggage van traveling with the group, morning briefings, walkie-talkies, a private photographer and 24/7 assistance; the guided Mount Etna day with 4x4 ascent and winery lunch; and the lunches and dinners named above, wine included where shown. Optional experiences are quoted separately, and every drive can be tailored.

The keys are waiting. Tell us which road has been calling you, and we will design the rest — the car, the route, the hotels, the tables — privately, personally, and entirely around you.

Good to know: these drives run on open dates, on request. Set departures operate with a minimum of three drivers; alternatively, any drive can be fully customized privately for couples — your dates, your pace, your car. An extra night before the drive begins is recommended, and pre- and post-drive nights and touring can be added anywhere along the route.

Booking your drive: a deposit of 20% confirms your dates, with the balance due two months before departure. Payment by bank wire or Zelle carries no surcharge; credit card payments add 5%.
