Since its release in 2003, Solheim's CEN® Review course has been taught hundreds of times to thousands of students around the world. With countless success stories, the course has played a crucial role in advancing and developing the nursing profession. Through a combination of lectures, graphics, videos and problematic questions, the Certified Solheim Emergency Nurse (CEN®) Survey course covers many of the areas that are tested on the CEN® BCEN exam. To ensure its continued effectiveness, the course, which follows the BCEN guidelines, is regularly updated. Solheim Enterprises has become a source for nurses in preparation for BCEN exams. The Solheim CE Library is your store for licensing and certification. Together with our exam review courses (CEN, TCRN, CPEN, CFRN) and non-certification courses (Overcoming Analysis Paralysis, Interactive Trauma), our CE library is the perfect resource for collecting all the necessary (or desired) CEs. Jeff Solheim Jeff Solchem, MSN, RN, CEN, CFRN, FAEN, TCRN Jeff has for more than a decade delivered motivational speeches, as well as with medical education for audiences around the world. He was invited to speak at venues as diverse as the International Emergency Management Conference in the Gold Coast, Australia, at the National Association of Emergency Nurses Conference here in the United States. As director and founder of the Helping Hands Project, not for a third world nonprofit medical organization, Jeff has traveled more than fifty times to countries around the world leading medical teams to some of the poorest places on earth. Jeff has been known to weave his down-to-earth speaking style with his incredible sense of humor and stories from around the world to create memorable presentations and workshops. Currently living in West Lynn, Oregon, Jeff is a registered nurse with a diverse background. He has worked in medical surgical departments, intensive care units and emergency departments, working in such diverse roles as nurse, on-board nurse, nursing administration, trauma coordinator, teacher nurse and state inspector. Since 2004, Jeff has authored eight books and has contributed to many others, traveling around the world, giving seminars and speaking to more than 500 audiences. Go to the main content of Jeff A.
